A Tribute to

Franklin Delano Roosevelt

April twelfth, nineteen hundred and forty-five, marked the end of the career of a man who had few peers in his generation. America lost one of her greatest patriots, a man who believed in the economic betterment and social improvement of his country, a man who was a true friend of democracy.

Franklin Delano Roosevelt gave the best years of his life to the United States. He was one who always did his utmost for the benefit of the common man. His passing ends the longest term of office ever held by any president, a term filled with greater responsibilities and graver consequences than any previous term of office, but one which was successfully managed by a great man.

President Roosevelt's death presents a challenge to the entire nation to continue, as he would wish, the great work which our beloved president so ably started.

THE EDITOR.

PRO DEUS ET PATRIA

"—that from these honored dead we take increased devotion to that cause for which they gave the last full measure of devotion; that we here highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain;—"

Class of 1945

In the Armed Service

The following members of the class of 1945 are now helping to insure a lasting peace for classes graduating after them and are the first to inscribe their names on the list of servicemen of the class of 1945. While we are justly proud of them, it is our fervent prayer that Almighty God will see that these boys, and the boys to follow, will be returned home, quicky, safely, victoriously.

AHERN, MARGARET TERESA
Stenographic Course
Peggy's only desire is to be a success in life. "Gee Whiz" she exclaims when something arouses her curiosity. She likes practically everything including dancing, eating, and sleeping. People who talk too much, and fellows who croon in her ear while dancing simply make her blood boil.
Honor Roll II.

ALESSE, ANGELINA RITA
Business Machines Course
"Are you foolish?" says Angelina. Here is a girl who likes good music and dancing, and also Bob Hope and F. Sinatra. She aims to be a success in the business world, an easy thing for such a conscientious person.
Honor Roll II.

ALISEO, MIMI JOSEPHINE
Accounting Course
"South America, here I come!" Wonder if they have butterscotch sundaes in those parts; doubtlessly there is an abundance of bananas. Mimi is one of our star basketball players, a member of the ever successful senior girls' team.
Honor Roll III
Basketball and Volleyball.

ALTERISIO, CARMELA
Clerical Course
When you hear "Gee Whiz, anyhow!" sounding through the corridors, it's probably Carmela who has discovered one of her chief dislikes runs in her silk stockings, or girls with superior airs. Always on time she enjoys roller-skating, bowling, and horseback riding. She aspires either to continue her business study or to take an art course.

ANDREWS, ROBERT STANLEY
College Preparatory Course
"Bob" is very sarcastic, but he more than makes up for this fault with his honesty and generosity. He has the interesting hobby of collecting other people's jewelry. He likes sports, debates, Mr. Morang's humor, and—excitement, which he should get plenty of if he fulfills his ambition to become an investigator for the Federal Government.
Honor Roll IV

ANNIS, RUSSELL DAVID
Stenographic Course
"Just let me remain in bed and catch up on lost sleep," says Russ, who tries to be as jolly as possible and to make others the same. Popular songs and modern music are his favorites, while classical music and dry movies are something to be avoided.
Honor Roll.

ARRIGO, MARY E.
Business Accounting Course
Being sweet and on time are two of Mary's virtues, so she should have little trouble realizing her ambition of working in a bank. She likes to receive letters from a certain sailor, and to dance when he is at home.

AUCOIN, JOHN
Trade School

AUCOIN, LUBIN PATRICK
Practical Arts Course
Luby's very popular, for he's always lending money. This will be good business training for him, because, after Luby finishes his term in the Navy, he plans to buy a restaurant, where every bit of business ability is needed. Luby, however, has plenty of that ability.

BARBANTI, BLANCHE T.
Accounting Course
Blanche, in spite of all that red hair is very patient and seldom flies off the handle. She is one of our best bowlers although any idea of "real work" is repelling. Eating takes up her spare time—maybe that's why she often asks, "What's cookin'?"
Honor Roll II, III.
Bowling III, IV; Volley Ball III.

BARTLETT, NATHAN ALFRED
Practical Arts Course
Nathan wants to be a radio technician in the Navy and after the war a photo-engraver. He is an ardent Crosby fan and so naturally dislikes "Frankie." Hunting in the back woods of Lincoln is one of his particular sports.
Honor Roll III, IV.

BECKETT, ELIZABETH BERNICE
Technical Course
We shall always remember Betty, the energetic little senior who led the singing at Junior and Senior assemblies. We wish her success when she attends Boston University next year.
Honor Roll II, III, IV.
Music Editor of Mirror.
Usher at 44 graduation.

BENINATI, ALFRED FRANCIS
Practical Arts Course
Dick's future includes time in the U. S. Navy. "Do you eat the bird?" is his pet expression. He is proud of having all his work done on time. Music, girls, and eating take up all of his spare time. He dislikes girls that are teasers—so take the hint.

BERRY, MARION ELLA
Accounting Course
One never has to wait for this "gal"—who is always on time. While she thoroughly enjoys the movies and hockey games, she wonders whether her Dad will ever get paid back in any of these investments.

BETTINSON, HOWARD EDWIN
Stenographic Course
Whenever anyone voices his dislike for Frank Sinatra, Howie always says, "You can say that again!" He enjoys watching the movies, especially Betty Hutton. We know Howie's good nature and promptness will help him make a success in the Navy.
Senior Class Auditor.
Honor Roll I, II, III, IV.
Band I, II.
Junior Prom Committee.
Worth Junior Alumni Committee.
Sophomore Social Committee.

BOHANNON, EFFIE MAY
College Course
This busy and popular senior has no present ambition, but whatever she does, we know she will do it well. May you always be as popular as you were in high school, Effie.
President of Freshman Class.
Dramatic Club.
Advertising Staff of Mirror.
Basketball II.

BOWLER, EDWARD WILLIAM
Practical Arts Course
Eddie, like so many of our other classmates, is Navy bound. A driving center on our fighting football team, his Irish spirit saved many a game for Waltham. Contemptuous of any whose spirit is not equal to his own, he backed it up with real sportsmanship.
Football II, III, IV.

BOWMAN, HAROLD MINOT
Accounting Course
Harry is that good-looking blond you always see dashing down the corridors, usually to ask Leafy how to make fancy side shots. His destination is some part of the service, where he is sure to make himself one of the most popular fellows.
Senior Nominating Committee.
Basketball IV.

BOYD, JR., CHARLES EDWARD
Business Clerical Course
We shall soon find Charles in the Navy, if his wish is granted. Knowing Charles, we are sure he will be a success and we wish him good-luck.

BRADEY, PAUL JOSEPH
Practical Arts Course
Paul likes sports and all types of girls. Lending money to Tasker is one of his many good points. He aspires to go to Hollywood and become a farmer (? ? ?—whoever heard of becoming a farmer in Hollywood?)

BRYSON, MARGARET THELMA
Practical Arts Course

Peggy is one of the partners in the tea-room to be owned and operated by Peggy and Kattie, Inc. She and Kattie are friends who will surely make a success. Peggy says she is always on time. Waiting for people and showers in gym are her dislikes.

BULLOCK, SHIRLEY MARCIA
Stenographic Course

Lee's ambition is to become a medical secretary. She likes listening to music, especially when it's Bing Crosby's or Glenn Miller's. Lee dislikes getting up early in the morning and people who say, "Are you kidding?"

Honor Roll I, II, III, IV.

BURTON, BARBARA CARRIE
Practical Arts Course

Barbara enjoys figuring out puzzles, a task at which she is usually unsuccessful. She also likes attending the movies with the girls and getting up at noon on Saturday, but not waiting in the cafeteria line and waiting for letters from a sailor.

CALUSDIAN, BEATRICE H.
Business Machines Course

Here's a girl with a unique ambition, a desire to go to Cuba. After the winter we've just passed, who can blame her? Beatrice is also an avid food consumer and loves all types. She also likes to make friends and keep them, which is easy for her.

CALUSDIAN, ELIZABETH CATHERINE
Accounting Course

Liz takes a great interest in collecting records of band leaders, and likes to listen to them by the hour. Artie Shaw is her favorite. She plans to travel around the world like so many of her other classmates. Mondays in school are her pet dislike.

CAMPBELL, LILLIAN GERTRUDE
Teachers' College Course

When "Lill" goes in training at the Newton Hospital she will be a welcome addition to its staff of good-looking nurses. She'd better not shout, "Hey, you know what?", in the quiet corridors, but of course she won't as long as her calm manner dominates her genial personality. She admits that weakness of hers for chocolate walnut sundaes, but we can't blame her for that, can we?

CANTWELL, MARION BERNICE
Stenographic Course

"Mapsie" enjoys square dances, English in 015, and summer vacation in Canada. "Well, you crumb, you!" is her favorite expression. She is noted for answering letters promptly.

Honor Roll II, III, IV.

CASELLA, THERESA JOANNE
College Preparatory Course

Theresa dislikes people who are always late, although she is usually late herself, but she enjoys stormy weather. She is loyal, friendly, and, best of all, she laughs at everybody's jokes. She is planning to train at Massachusetts General Hospital and eventually to become a Navy nurse. Luck, "Tee," you'll make a grand nurse.

Honor Roll II, III, IV.
Bowling III, IV.
Basketball II.

CASEY, JEANNE KATHRYN
Business Machines Course

Jeanne is a popular member of the local talent circle which presents many entertaining shows for the servicemen under the U. S. O. Getting along with people is her best virtue, and she can't understand why some people can be conceited

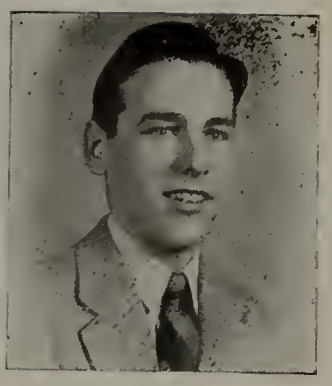
Dramatic Club II, III.

CASWELL, DONALD RICHARD
Stenographic Course

Don, who is often heard saying "Are you kidding?" plans to join the Navy. As there is a war on, his other ambition, to become a photographer, will have to wait. Don enjoys photography and following all the sports. No dislikes and promptness are two factors which will help him become a success.

CASWELL, RICHARD ALBERT
Technical Course
All that Dick can say when he sees a beautiful blonde or a shapely brunette is "What can you do?" He intends to make money by means of a printing press, now that he's finished printing gas coupons. His good nature and ready smile disappear when he has to push balking cars or arise early in the morning. Dick's final advice to his classmates is "Take it slow."

CHAGNON, MICHAEL JOSEPH
Clerical Course
Mike would like very much to keep out of trouble with his teachers. Bringing notes on time helps placate them, but doesn't cure all. Mike likes to dance and takes an interest in all sports.

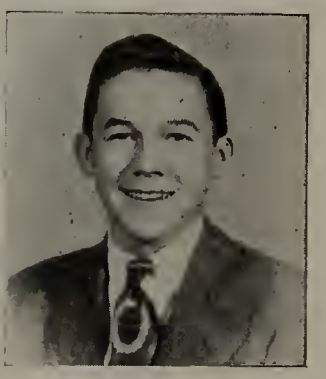


CHIASSON, MARGARET
Clerical Course
Margaret is the girl whose favorite expressions are "Listen, Bud" or "Golly Geepers." She likes bowling and ice-skating and has no use for conceited people. Her modest aspiration is only to be a good typist.
Senior Nominating IV.

CHIASSON, DORIS MAY
Practical Arts Course
Doris will do anything to help anyone, if she can. This explains the reason for the popularity of this good-natured senior. Cowboy songs and playing the guitar are the interests of this western-minded girl, who hopes some day to be able to travel out west or to become a telephone operator.

CHRISTIANSEN, RUTH MARIE
Stenographic Course
Ruth is one girl in our class who likes to eat and to excel in sports. She doesn't like being called "Rita," and she dislikes the Roberts bus. Her goal is Boston University, College of Practical Arts and letters. Best of luck to you, Ruthie.
Cheer Leader.
Bowling
Baseball.
Basketball.
Volley Ball.
Dramatic Club.
Football Usher
Class Day Usher.

CHUTE, EDWARD H.
Clerical Course
Eddie plans to become a cattle rancher after graduating from Waltham High. He has the business ability to do such work, as witnessed by the fact that his conduct is excellent and his homework is invariably completed.

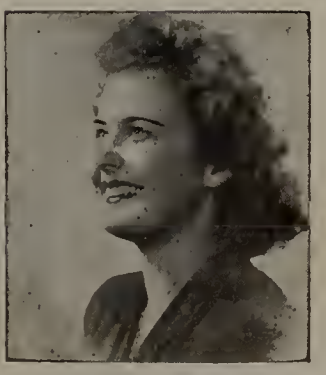


CINCOTTA, ROLAND JOHN
Business Machines Course
Whenever a group of girls get together and Ronnie passes by, you will always hear sighs of "Isn't he cute!" Ronnie should worry; this always smiling lad will make friends wherever he goes. He also likes to step out whenever possible, and to listen to Bob Hope when he's at home.

CINCOTTA, ROSE MARIE
College Preparatory Course
Rose is a good person to have around as she has that charming virtue of being agreeable. She dislikes conceited people and washing dishes, but she enjoys dancing with her big brother. Next year she is planning to go to Boston University. Loads of luck, Rose!
Honor Roll II, III.

CLARK, HAROLD JAMES
College Preparatory Course
Big, bashful "Hal" says that his worst fault is trying to understand women. He likes the South Side, dreamy music, Mr. Ward, the out-of-doors, and sports—especially football—and he dislikes silly girls, radio commercials, and cafeteria lines. There is no doubt but that his wish to become a successful man will come true.
Senior Dance Committee.
Junior Prom Committee.
Football III, IV.

CLARK, HELEN M.
Practical Arts Course
"Honest to Pete" and "Good Heavens" cries "Honey" as she darts through the corridors and cafeteria. She admits she is too noisy, but her good disposition balances that. She dislikes people who make scandal for her, and hearing "There Goes That Song Again." Honey's greatest concern right now is that her daddy may come back safe, and soon.



CLARK, RICHARD Y.
Technical Course

Clever, modest, studious, conscientious—that's Dick, genius of the Tech class. When he's not working or studying, you probably will find him enjoying his interesting hobby, motion picture photography. He admires Mr. Ward and Miss Spenser, and his favorite subjects are mathematics and physics. Next year he hopes to attend Rensselaer Polytechnical and after that —well the future should hold great things for Dick!

Chairman, Junior Prom Committee; Honor Roll II, III, IV; Editor of "Mirror" IV.

CLARKE, DONALD S.
Practical Arts Course

"Salvy" hopes some day to become a cowboy and frequently says at opportune moments, "Hey, get on it!" For some reason he has a particular dislike for Curve Street, and P. J's girls. He plays golf and finds it a great sport. As for bands, the Hoosier Hotshots get "Don's" vote.

COMEAU, WALTER PHILIP
Practical Arts Course

"Wally" is always lending money when he has it, but still has enough left over to enjoy dancing and all types of sports. He is a member of the Air Corps Reserve and hopes to leave this summer for the Army Air Corps. Good luck, Wally!

Sophomore Nominating Committee; Football III; Junior Prom Committee.

CONNORS, MARY ALICE
Practical Arts Course

Modest Mary hopes to travel so much that Mrs. Roosevelt will become envious. (That much travel just ain't). She plans to become a dental hygienist.

Dramatic Club.

CORMIER, PAULINE LAUDIA
College Preparatory Course

Sparkling brown eyes, a mischievous smile, plenty of "pep"—that's "Penny!" Dancing at "Tote" and telephone conversations every night with "Bill" are her top likes. Penny's energetic, good-natured way should make her future a very happy one.

"Mirror" Room Agent II, III, IV; Dramatic Club.

COUSINS, MARLYN LORRAINE
Stenographic Course

Lorraine would like to develop her musical talents and become a singer. She has made a grand beginning by attending choir rehearsals every week. She likes sports and music but dislikes bookkeeping and (please take notice, Neil) boys that tease.

Bowling II, III, IV; Honor Roll II, III.

CRONIN, BETTY ANN
Practical Arts Course

Betsy has the right slant on life, "Laugh and the world laughs with you." No wonder this smiling lass is liked by so many. Teasing Demarais and eating at a certain coffee shop are great fun. Betsy admits she has a weakness for forgetting names but makes up for it by smiling.

Dramatic Club IV.

CROSSLAND, ELLIS D.
Trade School

CURTIN, RITA PAULINE
Stenographic Course

A future student at Boston University, "Ree" is almost always seen with Ruthie. One of those "wildcats" from Roberts, she firmly believes in its future civilization. She is usually seen weekends dancing at the Totem Pole.

Football Usher II, III, IV; Bowling II, III.

DEACON, LOIS RIDGEWAY
Stenographic Course

"Deac" wants to attend Business College and then to travel. Every morning she greets her pals with, "What's new?" J. H.'s sandwiches in shorthand classes and Mr. H's apples kill Lois's appetite for any lunch, where there are no milk shakes. Homework and beano are Lois's dislikes. She hopes that some day she'll arrive on time for a bus.

DELANEY, ANNE ROSE
Stenographic Course
Annie likes roller skating and ice-skating, and collecting pictures of friends and cowboy records. She would like to go to Canada after graduation and settle down there in an office. The United States will lose a good citizen if Annie carries out her plan.
Honor Roll II, III.

DELLA CAMERA, IDA EDITH
Stenographic Course
Ida wants to travel around the world. When something amazes her she exclaims, "Are you kidding?" Her best virtues are being accommodating and keeping her temper, especially where N. F. is concerned. She dislikes hypocritical and conceited people. Ida likes to read, to travel, and to hear music of all kinds.

DELLEPIGNE, YOLANDA MARIE
Business Machines Course
Lana claims that she is never on time, but this is more than compensated for by her smiling disposition. Lana likes sports and collecting jewelry pins, especially ones with pictures of horses. As for her ambition, she is sure to make a success as a model or globe-trotter.
Bowling II, Class Day Usher.

DEMARAIS, ARLENE DANIELLE
Practical Arts Course
"Hey, Barbara, wait for me," says Arlene as she calls out to Barbara who is nervously stamping her feet. These two are inseparable friends. Both have the same likes and dislikes so the combination is natural.
Dramatic Club IV.

DERMOTT, JEAN DELORES
Stenographic Course
Dixie hopes to get married and have that white bungalow with B. R. "How's it goin'?" is Jean's favorite expression. Jean gets along with everyone. Our Merchant Marine, chocolate cake, and pay day rate high on her list. Conceited people, liver, and moody fellows are her dislikes.
Sophomore Social Committee; Honor Roll II.

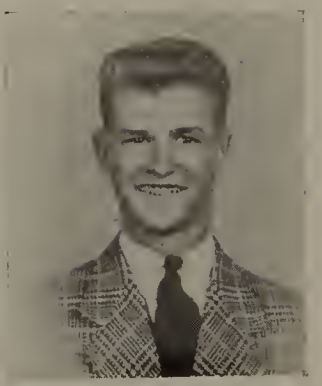
DEVEAUX, GEORGE DAVID
Technical Course
When George sees "Yammie" approaching him, he just hides his potato chips and says, "No chips this time, "Yammie'." George, who intends to see the world from an airplane, likes sports particularly, but, when it comes to solid geometry, all he says is that it gives him a solid headache.
Baseball III, IV; IV B Club; Football IV.

DI LORENZO, SUSAN MARY
Stenographic Course
Sue is a Sinatra fan, and collects pictures of Frankie for her scrapbook. She dislikes tests and Monday mornings, and also doing El's homework, a task which she does very well. Sue hopes to make a success in whatever she does, and with a grand start in the right direction, she should have very little trouble.

DI MURRO, MARIE A.
Stenographic Course
Marie is another popular senior. This jovial lass is well known for her musical talent and has entertained us many times with perfectly executed selections on her accordion. Her desire is to make a name for herself in the field of music, and, of course, for a girl like her the wish is a "cinch" to come true.
Honor Roll II, III, IV; Bowling; Dramatic Club.

DION, ELI JOSEPH
Practical Arts Course
"Shorty" hopes to stay in the Navy and run his own ship around the world. "Hi, ya kid" is "Shorty's" pet saying. He is always on time, but is very bashful. He likes to listen to Bing Crosby and to argue with L. A. He dislikes neckties and girls who wear too much make-up. People who don't mind their own business irritate him.
Baseball II, III; Nominating Committee II.

DI PRONIO, MARY A.
Teachers' College Course
Mary has a jolly time teasing Gibley, her schoolmate and chum. It's all done in fun, for Mary's jolly disposition just naturally causes her to create fun. She's a girl who wishes everyone well, and we all wish her well on her career as a teacher.
Honor Roll II, III, IV.



DORVAL, ELSIE ELIZABETH
Stenographic Course.
"Gosh! you can say that again" is Elsie's favorite expression. She wishes to become either a nurse or an aviatrix and likes collecting snapshots and records, flying, and taking part in all sports. One thing she can't stand is a poor sport.
Basketball; Badminton; Volley-ball; Archery; Baseball; Honor Roll II, III.

DOUCET, RUSSELL ALBERT
Practical Arts Course
"What do ya say?" asks Russ, waiting impatiently for his buddies, and he has good cause for complaint as he is never late for dates. He likes popular music and Sinatra, and would like to be able to emulate the "Great Crooner."
Dramatic Club, IV.

DUGAN, DONALD NORMAN
Business Machines Course
"Buster" aspires to stay in Waltham and become president of the Waltham Watch Company. If he does he will have no reason for being late, which he claims is his worst fault. Donald is also quite a skating fan, and likes to go skating in Newton with the fellows, including Will and Betty.

DUGAS, ESTHER MARY
Business Machines Course
We have seen Esther often as she atempted to usher us to seats during the football season. With her excellent drawing ability she will be the successful artist she hopes to be, well patronized by her many friends.
Dramatic Club II, III.

DUNN, BARBARA ANNE
Practical Arts Course
Barbara's ambition is to join the Cadet Nurse Corps. Writing up 'lab' experiments and taking showers at the last bell seems to her annoying, but she likes writing to a certain sailor—J. H.—and her afternoons in the coffee shop.
Dramatic Club III.

ELANDER, JOHN ROBERT JR.
Accounting Course
Johnny admits he has a quick temper, but then adds that he gets over it just as quickly. Johnny also has a good time wherever he goes, especially when he is with a certain 5' 7". He hopes to become a cook in the Navy, so that he'll be prepared in case he marries someone who can't cook (good philosophy).

FALZONE, CHARLES WILLIAM
Pactical Arts Course
"Chuck" likes scft music, girls, Frank Sinatra, and Alan Ladd, but any girl who plays "hard-to-get" is definitely "uh-uh" with him. Chuck's industry will stand him in good stead when he takes over his own grocery store.
Red Cross Committee; Dramatic Club.

FARRELL, BARBARA MARY
Stenographic Course
Barb, who takes pride in being on time, intends to become a private secretary. "Happy day!" or "You ain't kidding!" are some of her pet sayings. Barb enjoys skating and square dances.
Honor Roll I, II, III.

FARRELL, RAYMOND JOHN
Accounting Course
Red's famous for putting up with Paul, Bob, and Leafy. He is a football advocate, being on the team for two years. His destination is the United States Navy, preferably the submarine division. Red's friendly character will make him one of the best liked fellows on the boat.
Football III, IV; Honor Roll II, III, IV.

FENELEY, JAMES SINCLAIR, JR.
Practical Arts Course
Jim's ambition is to join the U. S. Marines. If you hear someone saying, "Eat it. It's ice cream!" you can be sure it's Jim. As for virtues, Jim claims that he does not sing in Mr. Elliot's classes. Coffee frappes and chicken dinners are tops with him, but stuck up girls and neckties he dislikes. Belmont is a beautiful place—isn't it, Jim?
Senior Dance Committee.

FERRERA, ANTOINETTE MARIE
Business Machines Course
"Toni" collects money and souvenirs from different countries for an interesting hobby. She also desires to travel, preferably in her own car. Dancing, bowling, Bob Hope, and evenings with fried clams and pickles she likes, but not conceited girls.

FINAN, ERNEST T., JR.
Practical Arts Course
He's that "hefty" senior who has played Right End on our football team for the past two years. Now a member of the fighting Marines, he is still on a championship team. He will be remembered for all those wonderful tackles made at just the right moment. After the war, Ern will be found deep in the woods of Maine, just fishing all day.
Football I, II, III.

FITZGERALD, PATRICK DAVID
Practical Arts Course
"Fitzie's" "Hi, how's it going?" adds new joy to his hearers. A civil service position is his ambition. After earning enough to retire, Fitzie just wants to rest and rest forever! He likes sports of all kinds, the newest movies, and a good time, but dislikes girls that talk too much.
Football I, II, III; Captain of the Medford game.

FOOTE, EVELYN HELEN
Business Machines Course
Evelyn wants to move and settle in sunny California after the war. After last winter, who can blame her? Making friends and keeping them is one of her many virtues. She likes cats and friendly people, but not conceited people.

FOOTE, LAURENCE EDWARD
Practical Arts Course
Larry is our nomination for the "angel" of Room 114. His claim to this title can be based on the fact that he never fails to stay after school for Miss Allen, a virtue in any man's language. Larry has his eyes on the Navy, but would like to become a musician after the war.

FRENCH, BARBARA WINSLOW
College Course
"I'm sorry," "Oh that's silly!" or "Don't look at me like that" replies "Barbie" as she chats with her friends in the corridor. Her ambition is to meet Bing Crosby. "Barbie" prides herself on being a good "sister" to George and always being cheerful. She likes Mr. Hodge's apples, long walks, and "Stardust," but dislikes waiting for Sue and chem. tests.
Art Editor of "Mirror" IV.

FRENCH, ESTELLE CURTIS
Practical Arts Course
Estelle wants to marry, and her future spouse must plan on a world trip, although he should certainly steer clear of any cold regions to which Estelle is allergic. Life will never be dull for this lively little miss!
Honor roll II, III.

FURDON, WILLIAM EDWARD
Practical Arts Course
When questioned on why he wasn't on time, Big Bill just says, "Better late than never." He likes sports and drinking cokes in Joe's. His ambition is to become a professional football player and we know he will be successful.
Football II, III, IV; Basketball II, IV; Baseball II.

GALINAUSKI, ALBERTA V.
Stenographic Course
Al says she is different. Could it be that it is because she is patient with Izzy? Anyway, Al likes listening to the radio, writing letters, and reading in bed. Her future hope is to become a model, a job for which she is well suited.
Honor Roll II, III, IV; Class Day Usher.

GARDINER, GEORGE HENRY
Business Machines Course
Tests in physics and salted peanuts are "Peck's" dislikes, while a good movie puts him in the right spirit. He never forgets to bring notes for absences, a fact which explains the ardent admiration his teachers have for him.

GAUDET, ELIZABETH ANN
Accounting Course
Betty plans to make a success in business life before she settles down and is married. Her honesty and loyalty will assure her of success, while her shyness and sweetness will surely make her married life happy.

GEISLER, G. JUNE
Stenographic Course
June's ambition is to be a secretary and also to see a certain fellow arrive on time. Any time during the day one is apt to hear, "Kelley! Wait for me!" June's pet erpression. She is always willing to help people and enjoys dancing with A. W., collecting bangles, hearing semi-classical music, and drinking frappes. Homework and lazy people are her chief dislikes.
Honor Roll I, II, III; Senior Dance Committee.

GEOFFRION, BARBARA ESTELLA
Practical Arts Course
"Oh, don't be facetious," says Barb, probably at anyone who doesn't like Mr. Morang, her chemistry teacher. This blond young lass likes to sleep late on Saturday mornings and to listen to Bing Crosby. She hopes to make things go right so that she can take a trip around the world.

GERRITSON, EDWARD HERBERT
Practical Arts Course
Eddie is one of the brightest students of Room 114. He explains this by saying he never feels sleepy because he catches up on lost sleep in a certain room on the second floor, east wing, thereby being wide awake at all times. He would like to visit Tokyo by air, but we hope that there won't be anything left of the place by the time Eddie flies over.
Band II, III, IV.

GESNER, CHARLENE MARGUERITE
College Course
Never keep Charlie waiting or you just will be left out in the cold. One can't blame her; she hasn't time to waste when Barb and a certain blond sailor are waiting at Doc's. Charlene plays the piano for the entertainment of others, and her sunny disposition will be a great asset to her.
Honor Roll II, III, IV; Dramatic Club.

GIARDINA, ROSE MARY
College Preparatory Course
Rose likes her job in homeroom of refereeing when Betty and Bob argue, although she dislikes being kept after school for talking when she tries to settle these arguments. She hopes to become a teacher after graduating from college. Her smile should make her a very friendly one.
Honor Roll II, III, IV; Dramatic Club.

GIBBS, MYRTLE R.
Business Machines Course
Gibby likes going out with Ruthie or going to the Central with R. G. She doesn't like getting up in the morning or doing homework, for which nobody can blame her. If one is looking for a good secretary, the search ends here.

GIBSON, CORINNE
Teachers' College Course
By "Gibby's" pet saying, "Prove it," you'd think that she wanted to be a lawyer, but no, she aspires to become a cadet nurse. (This training will come in handy, too, if she indulges too heavily in her favorite pastime, eating hot fudge sundaes.) She likes to tease "Dippy" and also holds no little affection for the U. S. Navy. (I wonder who he is.)
Dramatic Club IV; Usher at Parent-Teachers; Honor Roll I, IV.

GIMMINARDA, ROSE ANN
Business Machines Course
Rose is one of those few people who like classical music and dislike jitterbugging, but otherwise she is considered normal. Of course, we're joking, because we know she will make a successful secretary as she hopes to do. Once financially settled, Rose wants to tour the United States.

GONSALVES, PETER JOSEPH
Accounting Course
"Pete" wants to become a business executive, and his sociability and personality will help him gain his ends. His favorite expression is "Ain't that sweet." His favorite sports are hockey, baseball, and boxing.

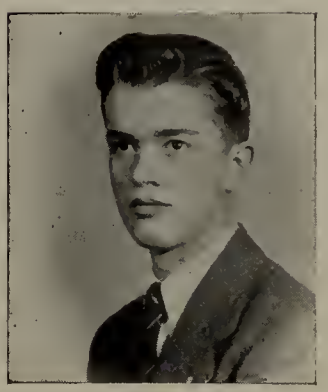
GORDON, PAUL UNDERWOOD
Practical Arts Course
"Flash" will go all over creation to secure a "Boogie-woogie record." The Maritime Cadet School, however, is his destination, where he intends to apply for radio training and possibly to get on the same ship as his older brother. Afterwards, Paul will make a success as a designer.

GOULD, RENNE ELLEN
College Preparatory Course
Although she is "still a mouse," Renne has a good-natured smile for everyone. "Is there any mail today?" is the first thing she asks when she goes home and most likely it's a letter from D. K. that she's expecting. Whatever she does in the future, her pleasing nature is certain to make her successful.
Honor Roll II; Bowling; Dramatic Club.

GRIFF, BARBARA Z.
Stenographic Course
One usually hears Babs say, "Whats cookin'?" or "Are you kidding?" To be a medical secretary is her ambition. Babs is noted for her good naturedness and her ready smile.
Bowling I, III; Dramatic Club; Honor Roll I.

GRIFF, SYLVIA LILLIAN
Stenographic Course
"Syl's" ambition is to be a private secretary. "Seeing is believing" or "What's new today kids!" are "Syl's" most treasured expressions. She is always willing to help anyone in trouble and possess the power to keep her temper when arguing with Marie and Rennie. Her spare time is spent in collecting classical records, dancing, and eating Hot Fudge Sundaees.
Bowling I, II, III; Honor Roll I.

GUBA, ROBERT F.
Technical Course
"Bob" will either join the navy or go to college; at present, he would like to see a change in the cafeteria system. When asked if he likes week-end homework, he will reply, "Are you kiddin'?" He likes areonautics, sports, and playing in the Band. Gentlemanly conduct gives him many friends.
Band I, II, III, IV; Assistant editor of the "Mirror"; Vice-President of homework exchange of IVB Club.



HAMWEY, ALAN GEORGE
Practical Arts Course
The Marine Corps will probably claim Alan this summer. After his stretch, he would like to make things go right so that he could own his own business. We all hope he's successful in both enterprises.
Dramatic Club III; Basketball II, III.

HANSEN, ELIOTT GEORGE
Pracictal Arts Course
Eliott is that handsome young man whom everybody knows and likes. Being reserved and keeping out of trouble has only enhanced his popularity and the respect people have for him. He is also known for his great playing as a member of the football team. The armed services will claim officer-material when Eliott enlists.
Sophomore Nominating Committee; Junior Prom Committee; Senior Dance Committee; Football IV; Honor Roll II.

HAPENNY, BARBARA MARIE
Stenographic Course
Barbara enjoys meeting people and taking part in all sports, but getting up early and bossy peoples are two of her dislikes. She would like to be a successful secretary, which shouldn't it be impossible for such a talented girl.
Sophomore Nominating Committee.

HARPOOTLIAN, ISABEL H.
Stenographic Course
Isabel, better known as "Izzy," always greets everyone with a smile. Her ambition is to become an efficient, private secretary. Flash that smile often, "Izzy," and we know you will succeed!
"Mirror" Staff.
Sophomore Nominating Committee.
Volley Ball
Basketball.
Bowling
Baseball and Archery.

HARTLEN, EDNA LOUISE
Stenographic Course
Edna is little on the reserved side, but is a good sport, so she makes friends. She enjoys skating at the Boston Skating Club and listening to the radio. Like everybody else, she would like to be a success.

HARTMAN, DAVID PAUL
Stenographic Course
David intends to join the Navy and to see the world before settling down to the quiet life. He likes sports, brunettes, and Howard Johnson's ice cream. His only dislikes are sweater girls and teachers. Patience and quietness are a couple of his virtues.
Honor Roll II.

HARTNETT, DONALD
Practical Arts Course
"Well, I finally made it," says Don when congratulated on receiving his diploma. Don's likeable personality has made him many friends and his everready wit has provided many hearty chuckles. Keep up that smile, Don, and you are sure to be a success.
Cafeteria II, III, IV.

HATFIELD, EILEEN ELIZABETH
Stenographic Course
Eileen's sparkling wit and good humor have added many moments of hilarity to her crowd. This popular senior with a personality hubbling over with enthusiasm can usually be found dancing at the Tote or at Twombley's with "Cobina." She has to her credit one of best humor sections of the "Mirror" ever printed.
Humor Editor of Mirror.
Dramatic Club.
Sophomore Nominating Committee.
Sophomore Social Committee.

HAWLEY, LOIS ELAINE
Technical Course
Before school you usually find Lois at the blackboard with those two other "Tech" girls, trying to figure out a Trig. problem. This girl, who always looks on the bright side of things, likes sweet music and mathematics. Her wish, to be successful, is certain to be fulfilled.
Bowling II, III.

HAWLEY, WALTER DEXTER
College Preparatory Course
When anybody hears the words "Why?" and "So What!" echoing through the corridors and classrooms he can be pretty sure that Walter is present. As an electrical engineer he will undoubtedly be a great success. He likes apple pie, ballroom dancing, and teasing M. R. and T. C., but dislikes getting up before daylight.
Freshman Nominating Committee.

HAYDEN, MILDRED JUNE
Stenographic Course
"Is that good?" says "Mil'," who likes swimming, skating, and music, as well as coffee ice-cream sodas in Brigham's with "Sullie," but dislikes being called "Millie." She is at her best with her friends. "The American Melody Hour," Eddie Cantor, and Bing Crosby are her favorite radio programs. Although she is always getting lost in the hospital, "Mil" wishes to be a medical secretary. She is good-natured but bashful.
Usher at graduation.
Honor Roll I, II, III.

HEMEON, CONSTANCE MARION
Business Machines Course
Connie wants to become a hair dresser, and show up the ones who say she wants to become a model. Whatever one she chooses, she's sure to be a success. She likes horseback riding with Nathalie and likes to have Mr. Ward correct her in English.
Mirror Room Agent II, III.
Dramatic Club II, III.

HITCHCOCK, WELDON
Accounting Course
Mild-mannered Hitchie has his eye on the President's office for 1976; that is, if Roosevelt isn't still there. If not successful then, he would probably end up "chasin' flies" for the Red Sox or any baseball team, as long as it's a baseball team.
Baseball III, IV.
Mirror Room Agent II, III, IV.

HODGSON, JEAN MARIE
Stenographic Course
"Hi, kids!" says Jeanie as she joins her group of friends, who are pleased to have friendly Jean among their ranks. Jean likes hayrides and long walks, preferably with a certain Marine. After leaving school she would like to become a secretary for a good-looking employer.
Bowling II.
Gym Team Captain II, III.
Honor Roll II, III.

HOLMSTROM, MARJORIE CHARLOTTE
Practical Arts Course
"Margie's" greatest ambition is to be a violinist with the Boston Symphony Orchestra. She enjoys practicing the violin, dancing, writing letters, and drinking chocolate sodas. She admits that she talks too long on the phone, and that she dislikes doing homework, Frank Sinatra, waiting, and catty girls. Best of luck, Margie, in your musical aspirations.

HOWARD, JOHN ALLEN
Technical Course
"How's it going?" asks Jack as he approaches a group of his friends. His goal in life is to be able to sleep through one German period without waking up. Jack prides himself on his gentlemanly conduct and his ability to pay attention to the teachers. He enjoys chocolate frappes and college basketball.
Honor Roll I, II.
Football '44.

JACOBS, ELEANOR MARIE
Practical Arts Course
Eleanor plans to become a business executive so she can take the afternoons off and take in a Van Johnson movie, that is, if the waiting line isn't too long. She spends her time minding children, a task for which this good-natured lady is well suited.

JENSEN, KENNETH HENRY
Clerical Course
Clem hails from Lincoln. That hasn't prevented him, however, from being one of the gang. His ambition is to join the Navy or the Merchant Marine when he finishes school.

JONES, MARJORIE ANN
Practical Arts Course
"Gung-ho!", "Jonesey!" Your stable of thoroughbreds will give you so much horsemanship in the open that you will be ready for your pet pastime, sleeping. Your friendly, forgiving spirit and your lively manner endear you not only to a certain right-guard but to your numerous friends in Manomet and those who walk with you to Weston.
Auditor I.
Cheer Leader Captain III, IV.
Dramatic Club III.
Social II.
Basketball, Volley Ball, Badminton.
Baseball, North Junior Alumnae.

JOYCE, PAUL E.
Practical Arts Course
Whenever you see that model for a men's clothing store with those flashing clothes and that meticulous grooming, you can be certain it's Paul, who is probably running after Don or Rooney to reclaim long outstanding debts. Paul's everready smile and pleasing appearance have made him one of the most popular boys in the senior class.

JUDKINS, WARREN DEXTER
Technical Course
Ask the boys of IVB who is the most conscientious boy in the class and the unanimous answer will be "Warren Judkins." This senior is of the reserved type, but his unwavering good conduct and friendly sincerity have made him many friends. Although he has not yet definitely decided on what his future will consist of, Warren is sure to be a success in whatever he does.
Honor Roll I, II, III, IV.

KAUFMAN, SELMA JUDYTH
College Preparatory Course
"Sel" likes all sports, especially football and hockey (wonder why?), "Tote" on Saturday nights, and Mr. Hodge's apples. Having white socks to lend for gym makes her a friend indeed to all girls in her gym class. Next year she plans to attend a secretarial school. Her ambition is to enjoy life, which she is sure to do.
Literary Staff of the Mirror.
Art Staff of the Mirror.
Senior Dance Committee.
Honor Roll II.
Dramatic Club.

KEEFE, JOSEPH JR.
Practical Arts Course
Joe is one of the members of the Class of 1945 of whom we are justly proud. He left us to enter the Navy before the year was out and thereby became another member of our class that is in military service. Our best wishes go with him for a safe and speedy return.

KELLEY, JUNE RUTH
Stenographic Course
"Geisler, wait for me!" That's June trying to keep up with J. G., and also trying to keep those all "a" report cards. Long walks she likes, but the slippery corridors of W. H. S. annoy her. With her dimples and sparkling personality, we know she will some day achieve her ambition. —to be a lawyer.
Secretary and Treasurer II, III.
Mirror Staff II, III, IV.
Sophomore Social Committee.
P. T. A. Usher; Class Day Usher.

KELLY, A. RUSSELL
Business Machine Course
Patient, good-natured "Russ," who wants to get into the Navy now and later to be a big man in this small world, may be heard to say, "How's it goin'?" whenever he greets you with his warm smile. "Kel" likes drinking coffee frappes with "Bev," sports, dancing, and nice music, but he dislikes homework, quiet girls, and moody people.
Senior Dance Chairman.
Sophomore and Junior Nominating Committees; Band I, II, III, IV.

KENNEN, BERNARD FRANK
Practical Arts Course
Bernie complains that he is too conscientious with the opposite sex. (He and Joe Zammuta must be mutual friends). Being assiduous and neat, however, assures his being a success in the drug business after the war. Until then, he plans to hasten the day of victory by entering the armed forces this summer and joining the medical corps. Good luck!

KENNESON, LAURA MAY
Business Machines Course
"Kenney" is one to have on your own side when it comes to debating. The mystery book she plans to write in the near future ought to be a killer—honesty being her policy. She hopes to lead a happy, successful life but no housework, thank you.
Honor Roll II.
Room Agent III, IV.
Archery and Volley Ball III.

KERINS, MARJORIE L.
Practical Arts Course
"Margie" aspires to be a hairdresser after taking a trip around the world and perhaps trying her talents on music. She likes spooky movies and listens regularly to "Yankee Tune Factory." She also likes to go to Boston on Saturdays with "The Gang." Conceited or selfish people are of no use to this girl whose best virtue is a sunny smile.

KEZER, MARION JUNE
Stenographic Course
If you hear "silly girl," you know it must be "Mernie," who is widely known for her novelty pin collection. Bowling on Saturday nights, drawing, "Those We Love," and "Take It Or Leave It" take up much of her time. After graduating she expects to start work in an office or to join the WAVES.
Usher at Graduation.
Honor Roll I, II, III.

KILPATRICK, LOIS E.
Stenographic Course
Lois admits she is always saying the wrong thing at the wrong time, which causes her untold blushing. This likeable senior has nothing to fear; her friends will always remain faithful. Lois has in mind becoming a medical secretary—a good job for a fine girl.
Sophomore Social Committee.

KINGSLEY, DONALD HAMMOND
Practical Arts Course
Don, whose ambition is to become a radio scriptwriter, tells us that people call him plenty of different names. "That's my boy who said that" exclaims Don when he hears Crosby and Hope on the radio. He can control his temper most of the time, but in Miss Allen's room anything can happen. Don was voted by his classmates as the boy whose forehead is most likely to recede. He likes music, sports, Sophomore girls, and almost anybody, though some of his best friends are people.

KOKIDKO, ANDRY
Technical Course
The wit of IV B himself, Andry is one of the most popular boys in the senior class and his famous Kokidko smile can be found at all Waltham High activities, especially the football games and class socials. He enjoys tinkering in lab and absorbing Miss Hart's German lessons. Whatever the future holds in store for Andry, it's bound to be enhanced greatly by the Kokidko personality.

KOUNDAKJIAN, ADELE F.
Stenographic Course
Some of that hilarious laughter which rings through the corridors of W. H. S. belongs to this future medical secretary. Although she's never on time, she's fast enough in the sports circles. Check your watches by Adele—she's here just a second before the bell.
Honor Roll.
Junior Prom Committee.
Dramatic Club.
Girls' Varsity Basketball II, III.

LANDRY, CATHERINE MARIE
Practical Arts Course
"Kay" is going to take a business course when she finishes school and thereby assure herself of a good position. She has an easy time in getting along with her classmates because of her pleasing personality. She likes to play the piano and to dance but dislikes oral compositions.

LANGILL, JEANNE MARY
Practical Arts Course
Jeanne likes Cambridge and boys with whiffles, but getting up in the morning and conceited boys are "nix" to her. She also likes dancing, and music by Bing Crosby. She hopes to go away this summer with Alice and have as good a time as the previous summer.
Dramatic Club.

LAROSA, JOSEPH WILLIAM
Clerical Course
Joe is an all-round sports fan, taking a great interest in football, basketball, and baseball. His sports' interests must have made him plenty healthy, for Joe has never been absent at Waltham High. He plans to join the Navy and afterwards will make a success in the business world.

LEACH, MARILYN ELEANOR
Business Machines Course
"Mel" answers all letters pronto, one sure way of keeping popular. She also likes to receive mail, the absence of which she will never have to worry about. Our hopes are hers that she become a successful commercial pilot, her ambition.

LEAF, CARLTON DURHAM
Accounting Course
When they hear, "Hy, there! How's it going?", they know Sleepy is out to hit their bankroll, especially Brady's. Carl enjoys fishing with Tasker in Maine and sleeping. We know he'll make a success in the Navy as that is his ambition.
Basketball II, III, IV.
Baseball III.
Athletic Committee.
Junior Prom Committee.

LEBLANC, AGNES MARIE
Business Machines Course
Agnes likes a good time (don't we all!). Vacations with loads of swimming are the acme of delight with her. Of course, to make things perfect, a courteous gentleman with a heavy wallet would be necessary. Agnes, however, should have little trouble acquiring this.
Honor Roll II, III, IV.
Dramatic Club.

LEBLANC, EDWARD PETER
Practical Arts Course
Eddie's claim to fame is that he always pays back borrowed money promptly and never fails to keep a date. He enjoys all sports, indoor and outdoor, but dislikes having to sweep the gim floor during exercises. Eddie's destination is the Navy, but afterwards he would like to drive a truck for a big concern.
Dramatic Club II.
Basketball IV.

LEE, DONALD COBURN
Technical Course
Don's favorite expression, "Hey, Lester!". He is well known in IV B circles and everyone knows his ambition is to beat Roger in a game of nine-ball. Getting S. P. in trouble and keeping U. B. H. on the ball is Don's favorite pastime. He was on the Honor Roll 1, 3; and a Big Tooth Operator in the R. A. C.

LELIEVRE, LORRAINE
Teachers' College Course
"Goodness Gravy" says "Lulu" as she munches on potato chips and teases J. S. Anyone who isn't a good sport doesn't appeal to her, but Bob Hope, good books and baseball do. After graduation she is planning to train at Newton Hospital to be a cadet nurse. You can be sure that she will succeed in whatever she undertakes.
Baseball II, III, IV.

LE SHANE, PHYLLIS
Teachers' College Course
"Phil" wants to become a Navy nurse (which is probably so that she'll be able to see more of that sailor of hers), but right now she is very busy with school activities or her favorite sports—football, hockey, and baseball. Everyone who knows her, will agree that a good sense of humor and sunny disposition will win her many friends in whatever she does.
Honor Roll II, II, IV.
Cheer Leader III, IV.
Badminton III, IV.
Senior Dance Committee.
Bowling III, IV.
Archery III.
Baseball II, III, IV.

LOGAN, ELAINE AVERILL
Practical Arts Course
"Jeepers," says sunny dispositioned Elaine. This exclamation was probably prompted by the appearance of a hot fudge sundae or letters from her friends in the Service. She plans to become a junior partner in her father's jewelry store.
Junior Nominating Committee.

LOWE, JOHN H.
Practical Arts Course
If there is anything that irks "Herby" it is to see black polish on a girl's fingernails, but if she has red hair, everything is forgiven. His secret ambition is to live to see a smoking-room and swimming-pool in W. H. S. His outstanding characteristic is punctuality plus. (so he says.) His broad grin and vast store of repartee will help him achieve his goal in life, whatever it may be.
Band II, III, IV.

LUNNY, FRANCES IRENE
Practical Arts Course
Lenny likes to draw and write, and her ambition is to write a book. Her sunny disposition and smiling personality explains her popularity. All sports and leisure time are tops with her.

LUPIEN, GEORGE LOUIS, JR.
Practical Arts Course
George pretends to be shy, but those who know him know better. George spends most of his time explaining to Miss A. how he was not at fault, but the explaining is usually useless. However, that is not to deter him from making good in the United States Post Office, where he hopes to go after school.
Honor Roll II, III.
Cafeteria worker III, IV.

MACDONALD, BARBARA R.
Stenographic Course
"Mac" is an ardent Crosby fan, and loves Charlie Spivak's orchestra. She likes tall soldiers and does a lot of corresponding with them. Murder mysteries are her delight. Her ambition is to go to a business school. She loves hot fudge sundaes at Brigham's and the brownies in school.

MAFFEI, MARY ELIZABETH
Stenographic Course
Wanted: A government position in Honolulu. She likes Artie Shaw, dancing, going to the RKO, and hot fudge sundaes at the Shore Drug Company, but dislikes waiting for Pauline, and making oral reports. She is often heard saying, "I like that!" or "Hurry up, Polly!" Her worst fault is borrowing money. A certain Marine and foothall player are tops with her.
Honor Roll II.

MANDILE, JULIA A.
Accounting Course
Holding her temper and giving a smile to take its place are two good reasons for the future success of this girl. Although "Mandy's mind is not made up definitely, she wants to make a success in the outside world. Meanwhile, dancing, sports, and going to the U. S. O. will occupy most of her time.

MANERO, CHARLES
Trade School

MANNING, JACK BARRETT
Accounting Course
"How do" says Jack (probably when he meets that certain Junior girl). Although he is always late, he gets there. He likes the "Tote," Bob Hope, and good music but not walking or rushing around. He is going to join the Navy but until then will content himself playing baseball.
Baseball III.

MARA, ROBERT JOSEPH
Practical Arts Course
Bob left our ranks this year to join the Navy where this quiet young man will make a fine sailor. While he attended Waltham High he was one of the gang in room 112. Our best wishes go with him in his new adventure.

McCANN, MURIEL
Business Machines Course
If there's anything Muriel can't stand, it's a smoke-filled room. She likes to go bowling and attends the movies fairly regularly. Her ideal ambition is to be successful in life.
Honor Roll IV.

McCANN, RITA JOSEPHINE
College Preparatory
Rita dislikes people who misunderstand her and likes Mr. Hodge's apples, playing the piano, movies, sports, and Mr. Ward's wit. "Mac" hopes to follow in her sister's footsteps and become a Navy nurse, for she would like to sail around the world. Sounds like fun!
Basketball II.
Dramatic Club

McCARTHY, BARBARA ANN
Stenographic Course
"Mac," "Fat," or "Barb," as we know her relishes vanilla milk shakes at "Twombley's." Being a member of the WAVES is the height of her ambition. School and work are her major disinterests. One can generally hear "Bay, that's pretty sharp," when something appeals to her. Thursday nights are devoted to Crosby and his program when Sinatra isn't broadcasting.

McELHINEY, GEORGE H.
Special Course
"Frankie" is always happy to be willing to sit down and beat out a solid "Boogie Woogie" number in dance intermission. Some day he hopes to become a surgeon, but we can't imagine this Frank Sinatra fan cutting up people. He dislikes competitors. What about his flashy bow ties.
Chairman Senior Nominating Committee.
Honor Roll IV.
Band I, II, III.

McGUIGAN, HERBERT ARNOLD
Accounting Course
Herb this year is realizing his life's goal, that of graduating from Waltham High. He doesn't say what he wishes to do later, but whatever he undertakes Herb has the ability to make good. He claims he is always on time, especially when girls are concerned.

McGUINNESS, ARLENE RITA
Stenographic Course
Oh, shucks, "Ginger," don't be afraid of falling from those horses you can ride so well! When you become the perfect secretary, you'll have more time for dancing, roller-skating, and Bing Crosby.
Honor Roll III, IV.

McGUIRE, LEO WILLIAM
Practical Arts Course
Mac was the boy who was on the receiving end of many of those spectacular Zeno passes (remember the Everett game?) He likes all sports, especially football. Mac plans to finish school this year and then join the Marine Corps, where he is sure to make a fine Marine.
Football IV.

McLEAN, DONALD GORDON
Technical Course
"Mucker" would like to be a draftsman after he gets through with his Army life. He likes lemon cokes, soft music, Boogie Woogie, Bob Hope, and Brunettes. His dislikes platinum blondes, too much jive music, and homework. One can usually see him and Bill S. exchanging homework before school.
Senior Dance Committee.
President of IV B Club.

McNEIL, ELIZABETH ANN
Stenographic Course
"Mickey" is a Bing Crosby fan. When you hear "Well, I wouldn't say that now," you can be sure she is in the immediate vicinity. She delights in murder stories, hot fudge sundaes at Brigham's, and potato chips at lunch. She works in Cronin's on week-ends but plans to get an office job and have a career after she graduates.

MILLIGAN, ROGER WILLIAM
Technical Course
If by chance, you say the "Crusher" has no virtues, he will retort, "That don't cut no ice." Besides playing his trumpet, he likes dancing, girls, and plenty of time (which he won't find if he has to battle the Japs), and would like to be the first "white man" on the Waltham High School faculty.
Band I, II, III, IV.

MOBILIA, ANGELINA
Stenographic Course
"Angie" is the "cute" little pocket-sized edition commonly referred to as "The girl with the Golden Voice," but she'd rather be called "Angel." She likes Frank Sinatra, and Harry James. She has an amiable personality, but can't stand conceited people and her hair, which annoys her on a rainy day. "Good things come in small packages."
Honor Roll I.

MOLLICA, BEVERLY ANN
College Course
If you hear a pretty, black-haired girl ask "What do you say?", that's "Moldy." She wants to study journalism, in which she undoubtedly got her start by gathering news from the rest of the Cedarwood Hillbillies at Brigham's. Her good nature makes her popular with the gang which can often be seen hiking up to the reservoir or exploring the wilds of Cedarwood.
Freshman and Sophomore Social Committees.
Honor Roll I.
Dramatic Club I.
Football Usher III, IV.

MONAHAN, MARGARET MARY
Business Machines Course
People just can't anger Peggy because she has too firm a control of temper. She is always ready for dancing or swimming, but gym and gym-showers are taboo with her. She has her heart set on being a WAVE, an ambition at which we know she'll do well.

MONKS, ANNA MAY ROSE
Clerical Course
Anna can always be counted on for being on time and also for being too frank. She should worry; these two characteristics will surely assure her of future success in her chosen field, being a Powers' model. She likes tall, blonde boys, and, if she ever realizes her ambition, she'll never have to worry about their being around.
Bowling II.
Archery II.

MONTEIRO, GLORIA MARIA
Practical Arts Course
After graduating from the N. E. Conservatory of Music, this very popular lass plans to undertake a grand adventure, that of organizing a Latin-American orchestra. At the present time, she is attending the N. E. Conservatory.
Dramatic Club IV.
Red Cross II.

MORREALE, ELEANOR
Stenographic Course
"I wonder," is Eleanor's favorite expression, and her ambition is to become the manager of Diana's Sweet Shop. She likes driving and dancing at the Totem Pole. She enjoys Red Skelton's program and also likes to listen to Vaughn Monroe's music. She has a sense of humor.
Honor Roll I.

MORREALLE, VIRGINIA
Stenographic Course
Whenever you are looking for "Ginny," all you have to do is to notice the tallest girl in the crowd. Seriously, she really is a swell pal and loves to meet new friends. Her one ambition is to become a private secretary. "Ginny" enjoys evenings skating, and listening to Harry James and Lux Radio Theatre. If she isn't working, you will usually see her drinking coffee floats at the drug store.
Honor Roll II.

MORSE, R. RAYMOND, JR.
Technical Course
If during an intermission of a dance you hear the "hot" rhythm of the drums, you may be sure it's "Bob" playing. When asked questions regarding a certain junior blonde, he will calmly reply, "What's the matter? Ya crazy or sumthin'?" His ambition is to be a drummer or an aviator, at either of which he will no doubt be a success.
Football II, III, IV.
N. J. H. Alumni Committee III, IV.
Dramatic Club IV.
Vice-President of parties for IV B Club.

MOSHER, MARJORIE ELNA
Practical Arts Course
Marge wants "to travel where the West commences." Good-natured, she worries little and figures everything has to work out somehow. She would give three cheers for the Army any time.

MURPHY, CLARE
Stenographic Course
If you hear "Aw gee, fellas!" or "Hey! Wait for me," you can be sure it's Kim, whose high ambition is to be successful in everything she does. Excelling in English, reading good books and wearing pretty clothes delight her. She emphatically dislikes bow ties and conceited boys. Trying to be cheerful at all times is her finest virtue, although sometimes she is not too successful.

MYERS, JANICE G.
Teachers' College Course
"Oh, my heavens!" remarks "Jan" when something startles or disturbs her. She hopes to attend Rhode Island State and to major in Business Administration. She likes interviewing bashful football heroes and teasing Neil, but does not like having her locker behind swinging doors and being called "Newtonite." Her worse fault is hurrying everywhere she goes, except to class.
Honor Roll I, II, III, IV.
Bowling II, III, IV.
"Mirror" Room Agent III.
Literary Staff III.
Exchange Editor of "Mirror," IV.
Co-Editor of High School Column, III, IV.
Freshman Nominating Committee.
Writer of Senior Class Will.

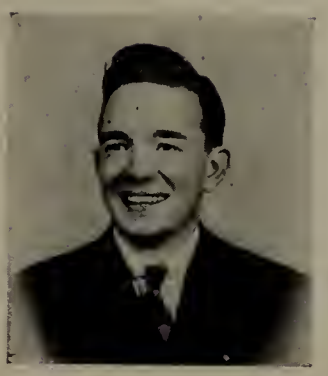
NETHERCOTE, GRACE MARIE
Stenographic Course
"Legs" would like to travel around the world and then settle down as a private secretary. Conceited people and Harriet Hilliard's voice are her dislikes. An evening at "Tote" with B. J., Bing Crosby, and the Boston Braves are tops with her. Although she spends hours waiting for "Barb" and "Maggy," they remain the inseperables.
Basketball I, II, II.
Class Day Usher.

NEWCOMB, NANCY ELIZABETH
College Preparatory Course
"Nan" finds time for everyone and everything, but how she does it, is a mystery. Mr. Ward, Mr. Hodges "apples," sports, and dancing at Totem Pole are tops with her. Next year she plans to attend Middlebury College. There her friendly spirit is sure to win her many friends.
Honor Roll II, III, IV.
Assistant Editor of "Mirror."
President of the Dramatic Club.
Basketball.
Badminton.
Baseball.
Archery.
Bowling.

NIOSE, SUSAN JANE
Business Machines Course
Sue wants to be a success in whatever she undertakes and then to travel around the world. She likes music, especially Western songs and popular ones, sung by Sinatra. Sue is always on time and dislikes to be kept waiting. She goes fo bowling and the Lux Radio Theater.

NIX, NEIL
Technical Course
"Who's got a pencil" asks "Dusty" as he barely beats the bell at the opening of school (With that big smile, how can anyone refuse him?) His talent in tap-dancing has been shared throughout the state with our fighting men. His goal is an engineering school. Western songs, horseback riding, and egg salad sandwiches fill his mind when he isn't busy making Janice blush.
North Junior Alumnae.
Dramatic Club.
IV B Club.
Literary Staff of Mirror '44.

NOYES, CAROLYN DAVIS
Stenographic Course
Sandy-haired "Cal's" destination is studying languages and journalism at Boston University. After that she plans to travel in Europe on a bicycle. She is one of "Frankie's" most devoted fans, and is "mad" about hot fudge sundaes, spaghetti, and the color blue. People who are too proper and never have anything to say annoy her.
Sophomore Class Auditor.
Member of Dramatic Club.
And D. V. Club.
Parents' Night and Class Day Usher.



OLIVERI, VIRGINIA ANN
Stenographic Course
"Ginnie" is a brown-haired, brown-eyed vivacious girl who is seen racing through the corridors trying to outrun the bell. She is the "cute" drum-majorette who has led the Waltham Senior Band for three years. Her sweet disposition is the envy of everyone.
Honor Roll.
Advertising Committee.
Basketball.
Badminton.
Bowling and Band I, II, III.
Drum Majorette.

ORECHIA, RUTH MARIE
Teachers' College Course
"Ruthie" wants to become a Navy Nurse after training at Newton Hospital and we all know that her sincerity and patience will be appreciated very much by everybody with whom she comes in contact. Right now, though, she is prety busy attending hockey games or eating ice cream to the rhythm of Guy Lombardo. Neither "Frankie" nor rainy days appeal to Ruth.
Honor Roll I, II, III.

OWEN, LOUISE CUSHMAN
Teachers' College Course
"Oh! my sainted aunt" is all Lou can say when she has to wait for Phil. Lou's ambition is to become an experimental dietitian and we wish her success. She enjoys dropping in at Brigham's on the way home from school, listening, to the Lux Radio Theater, and almost any sport.
Dramatic Club I, II, III, IV.
Senior Dance Committee IV.
Honor Roll IV.

PALUMBO, GILDA ANN
Stenographic Course
"Jill" is always smiling and giving out a cheerful grin. She likes our Navy and Frank Sinatra, and is especially fond of vanilla ice cream with peanut butter, but she doesn't care for short men and people never on time. We wisn you the best of luck, "Jill."
Honor Roll II, III, IV.
Basketball, Baseball, Bowling.
Volley Ball, Archery.
South Jr. Alumni Committee.
Sports Editor, Mirror.
Junior Prom Committee.
Dramatic Club II.

PALUMBO, NICHOLAS
Practical Arts Course
Nick was the popular halfback of our football team and occasioned many "oohs" and "ahs" from our coeds as they watched his booming spirals sail over the head of enemy defenders. Nick, like so many others of our class, is headed for the service, and our best wishes go with him as with all the rest.
Football IV.

PAUL, ISABEL R.
Special Course
"Isie" is bound for Colby where she will train to be a laboratory technician to prepare for a "WAVE" uniform. A familiar figure leading the W. H. S. band, she won first prize at the U. A. V. Convention in '43, and is a popular U. S. O. entertainer.
Drum Majorette II, III, IV.
Badminton and Archery III.

PARELLA, ESTHER JULIA
Special Course
Esther likes ice-skating and talking for hours with Mary on the telephone. Being on time and being dependable are her virtues. She is going to join the Cadet Nurse Corps, and have a great vacation.

PEARSON, BEVERLY MERRITT
College Course
Bev. is the friendly and popular senior, who is so often mistaken for her twin sister. Besides wanting to join the Cadet Nurse Corps, she would like very much to see student government in Waltham High School. We know Bev. will be a success at whatever she tries.
Honor Roll III.
Member of Dramatic Club.
Member of Pennant Club.

PENDERGAST, MATTHEW

PINTABONA, LORETTA
Stenographic Course
Lorry, a "slugger" in baseball, is often heard saying, "Oh, sure." She likes Glen Miller and always has an ear for the 920 Club. Cars, spaghetti, and J. H. are tops on her list of good things. Really, Lorry, your wit and humor, and likeable personality should promote your plans for the future as a Cadet Nurse.
Honor Roll II, III.

POST, LEONARD SCOTT
Technical Course
"Scottie" claims he dislikes nothing and likes, best of all, skating, swimming, ice cream, sports, dancing, and people in general. His gentlemanly conduct, punctuality, honesty, sincerity, and modesty will undoubtedly win for him many friends in his long struggle through life.
Honor Roll II, III, IV.
Band I. II. III, IV.
History Prize III.

PEARSON, BARBARA CLAIRE
Stenographic Course
"Oh, my soul," says Cabina, as her hazel eyes grow wide when Delia mimics Boyer. Her loyalty and cheerfulness have won her many friends. She is our constant model of the latest hair styles, likes to read poetry, and to use odd shades of nail polish. Conceited boys and dish washing top her list of dislikes! With that vivacious personality, we know success will be hers.
Chairman of Sophomore Social.
Honor Roll II.
Vice President III, IV.
Dramatic Club II, III.
Secretary of Pennant Club IV.

PEARSON, THELMA B.
Accounting Course
Thel, that cute and energetic girl, hopes to get a good office position after graduation. Her winning smile and pleasing personality will certainly make her future life a success.
Bowling '43, '44.
Archery '44.

PHIPPS, FARRAND DAVID
Special Course
"Three may keep a secret, if two of them are dead," is the saying often heard from Farrand, who enjoys basketball, golf and music, his favorite song being "I Got Plenty of Nothing and Plenty of Nothing for Me." He cares little for people who can not say "no," and who are always going around with a chip on their shoulder.
Mirror Advertising Staff.

PORTER, JEAN ROBLEE
Special Course
"Why sure" says "Jimmie" as one of her friends asks her if she would like to have a frappe at Twombly's, and, as usual, she gets there right on time. To be a nurse is her ambition but right now her outside interest is writing while listening to the music of Woody Herman or Glenn Miller, to a friend in the Army Air Corps.
Junior Prom Committee.

POTTLE, ETHEL E.
Business Accounting Course
Smiling is one of Ethel's virtues along with getting to school on time. She likes to travel, collect records, and receive mail, while reading and doing homework are offensive to her sense of better judgment. Ethel's sure of fulfilling her ambition of making a successful marriage.
Honor Roll II, III, IV.

RAHBERG, V. JEANNE
Teachers' College Course
Right now Jeanne's chief interest is in a certain Newtonite. Some day she hopes to become a nurse and travel over the country on a dog sled. Before coming to Waltham in her Junior year, she attended Acton High School, where she exercised her gift for drawing, by illustrating the School paper. Card games do not appeal to her, but she does like outdoor sports, roller-skating, and good music.

RAMSDELL, ELAINE M.
Stenographic Course
Our secretary-to-be, "Laney," would just love to have her ideal world filled with juicy steaks, Frankie Carl's piano playing, and a certain somebody from N. H. Shy boys are a bore to her. Most of her pin money is spent on air-mail stamps that eventually reach the Navy and Marine Corps. Her ambition is to be happy, and we know she will be.
"Elaine the fair, Elaine the loveable."

RAND, JOANE PAULINE
Stenographic Course
If she's auburn-haired, green-eyed, Irish, and continually seen arguing politics with Messrs. Ward and Mosher, it's Cedarwood's one man Chamber of Commerce —"Randy." The only thing besides her beloved Cedarwood that will content her is raising Irish setters on a Kelly-green ranch in Alaska.
Committee for Student Government III.
Basketball Usher II.
O. H. Club II, III.
Dramatic Club.

RANDO, THOMAS JOHN
Stenographic Course
Tommy's ambition is to become a musician and we all know how easily he should become a success, for who can forget Tommy's solid renditions on his red hot accordion? There's nothing extraordinary about him; he's just one of those students who goes steadily on, and is liked by everybody.

RANKIN, JEANNE ELIZABETH
Accounting Course
Civil Service will claim Dutchess first; afterwards domestic activities. She likes movies, tennis, dancing at the "Tote," and photography. "Holding my temper is one of my virtues," she claims. With that asset she is sure to make a success in her domestic activities.

RAVESI, JOSEPHINE A.
Stenographic Course
"Do you really think so?" "Jo" asks. She never hears the answer she wants, but you can be sure she'll keep trying. Her favorite band leader is Glenn Miller and she idolizes "Frankie." "Jo's" ambition is to search for her "one and only" and settle down to be a good housewife.

RAYMOND, FLORENCE
Stenographic Course
"Flo's" best virtue is her tolerance. Getting up in the morning she hates but sincere people, dancing, ice-skating, receiving mail from California, and fried clams are what she likes. She'll take her music on the sweet side, meaning Bing C.'s singing. She's a C. A. P. Cadet, and her ambition is to fly a plane. She is a most sincere person.
"The aim, if reached or not, makes great the life."

RIDENTI, MARY ANNE
College Preparatory Course
Mary likes people in general, music, interesting radio prorgams, dancing, and her senior homeroom teacher. She is friendly and easy to get along with and she doesn't mind waiting patiently for T. C. We hope that she realizes her ambition and goes to college next year.
Honor Roll II, III, IV.
Basketball II.
Bowling II, III.

RIER, ROBERT CARLTON
Stenographic Course
Bob is one of the outstanding boys of the senior class. This popular senior has won more honors and has received more trophies than probably any other student. But why shouldn't he? His likeable manner and cheerful personality would rate him high on anyone's list. Best wishes to the success of a grand fellow.
Football III.
Baseball II, III, IV.
Hockey IV.
President of Pennant Club.
Sports Editor of Mirror IV.

RIZZO, JOSEPHINE R.
Accounting Course
"Jo" likes to spend an evening listening to the radio or playing gin rummy; that is, when she isn't out dancing with the boys. She wishes to travel in Europe after she has made her pile of money.
Honor Roll II.

ROBERTSON, CORRINNE FAITH
Business Machines Course
"Christopher Columbus!" Corky's pet saying at present. "Tote" does just "fine" for any of Corrinne's celebrating. Here is a person one can always depend on to help out in difficult situations very successfully.
Dramatic Club.

ROBINSON, BARBARA MARY
Practical Arts Course
Waiting for people, especially Margie, is one thing that gauls Barb. Another is waiting for letters. Her ambition is to travel, preferably with a certain soldier. Meanwhile, she will continue being always on time and having a good disposition.

ROBINSON, RICHARD
Technical Course
"What can you do?" exclaims "Red" as he goes about trying to exchange homework—a one-sided exchange. This woman-hater, who intends to become an engineer, dislikes working at the watch factory but likes Duke Ellington's orchestra, pay day, and dancing at the "Tote." Perhaps his gentlemanly conduct will be the cause of his success in life.
Football II, IV.
Vice President of Recreations of IV B Club.

ROCHE, ARLENE ELIZABETH
College Course
If you see a young lady paddling through the Panama Canal in a rowboat on her way around the world, you can bet it will be "Illy." In case she can't get a rowboat, however, she plans to go to Jackson College, but in either case, she admits that she'll miss the hills of Cedarwood. She claims she's stubborn, but we'll all forgive her if she will keep her wonderful sense of humor.
Honor Roll I, II, IV.
Football Usher.
Badminton.
Cedarwood O. H. Club.

ROCKWOOD, HOWARD
Practical Arts Course
Howie is known by practically everyone. This snappy-dressed senior rivals Paul Joyce in his natty attire. Howie can usually be found in the library, catching up on the latest news and stories or frequenting all the social gatherings of Waltham High.

ROONEY, JOHN F.
Practical Arts Course
Johnny will probably make a good loan office worker (ask Clark and Joyce how well he covers their financial embarrassment.) Johnny's quite a lady's man, which probably explains his ambition to become the best man in Radcliffe. Johnny's one claim to fame is his membership in that famous trio, the scourge of room 114.

RUGGLES, HARVEY RICHARD
Technical Course
Harvey, sometimes known as "Doc," has not quite made up his mind as to what school he is going to attend, but would like to follow an engineering course. His hobby is building model planes. He dislikes girls in men's clothing, and being late for school, but enjoys hill-billy music, Mr. Hollis's jokes, and living in Newton.
Honor Roll I, II, III, IV.
Dramatic Club.
IV B Club.

SABETTI, ANNA R.
College Preparatory Course
"You didn't know I was talented," says Anna, after making some remark, particularly witty. She likes to read Macauley and the Saturday Evening Post, and she enjoys listening to Mr. Ward and good music. Her jolly humor and good-hearted nature should go far in making her many friends.
Honor Roll IV.
Bowling III, IV.
Dramatic Club IV.

SCHULTHEIS, CHARLES WILLIAM
Technical Course
To be a mechanical engineer, if the navy doesn't take him first, is "Bill's" ambition. "Things are tough all over," he will remark while pondering German homework. Dancing at the "Tote", Benny Goodman's music, exchanging jokes with "Mucker," and a quiet evening at home with "Penny" are all right with "Schultz.' Best of luck to you, Bill!
Sophomore Social Committee.
Vice-President of IV B Club in charge of "Operations."

SEESTED, SHIRLEY
Accounting Course
Shirley plans to train for a Cadet Nurse and to further her training on the piano. Her likes range in music from Glenn Miller to symphony; and in other things include the ocean, spring, and French fried potatoes. She dislikes oysters and people with no sense of humor.
Bowling, Dramatic Club.
Honor Roll.

SHAPIRO, STANLEY
Practical Arts Course
One of the boys of our class who has already laid aside his school things for a uniform and a gun, Stan always brought a breath of humor into every gathering. He was the spunky left-end on our football team.
Football II, III, IV.

SIMMONS, ARLENE RAE
College Course
"Simmie" is the girl who will be remembered for her all "A" report cards. The boys and girls who have her for a teacher after she graduatess from the Framingham Normal School will certainly be lucky. Good luck, Arlene.
Honor Roll II, III, IV.
Bowling III, IV.
Basketball III, IV.
Volley Ball III.

STARK, GLADYS
Business Machines Course
Gladys is one of our peppiest and jovial seniors. Any day you can see this diminutive lass lending a hearty laugh to all of her gatherings. She's a popular girl and is bound to go far with her jovial personality and sense of humor.

STIEFEL, ALBERT DANIEL
Technical Course
Al likes to attend religious meetings and he also likes to sing sacred music as well as to hear it. Next year he plans to enter Eastern Nazarene College. Although "Al" is good-natured and loads of fun, his friends all know that he is very sincere in his ambition to enter the ministry where his enthusiasm and sincerity should make him successful in his chosen field.
Honor Roll I, II, III.
Literary Staff of "Mirror" III.

SULLIVAN, JEAN WINIFRED
Teachers' College Course
This ambitious young lady plans to take nurses' training at Newton Hospital. Jean likes attending hockey and baseball games and spends as many vacations as possible at the "Cape." Her steadiness and careful work will help her a long way.
Honor Roll II, III, IV.

SWANBERG, MARGARET ANN
Special Course
Peggy is rather shy, quiet, and self-controlled. She is extremely patient when waiting for "Honey" who sometimes arrives an hour late. Light classical music and tennis are her likes while work causes her to frown. Peggy would like to travel.
Dramatic Club IV.
Bowling IV.

TASKER, THOMAS HUNTLEY
Stenographic Course
Fishing on the Maine coast with Leaf—that's his ambition. He also would like to do the right thing, just once. Huntley's good humor, and patience have made him very popular, and we know he'll never forget Miss Mooney's shorthand classes—or those dancing lessons with "Murph."
Baseball II, III.

TAYLOR, ROBERT WILSON
Practical Arts Course
A member of the hard working Senior Dance Committee, Bob is a conscientious and valuable asset to our Senior Class. A domestic person at heart, Bob hopes to settle down after the war and live happily.
Football I, II, III.
Senior Dance Committee.
Mirror Room Agent I, II, III.

TEMPLE, JUNE
Special Course
June wants to graduate from Lasell Junior College and later visit Europe. Continually on the go, June has many friends who like her good nature and vivacity.
Orchestra II, III, IV.

THOMAS, ELEANOR
Stenographic Course
Eleanor is one of the better-known members of 105. This blonde senior has the personality and appearance to make her outstanding in any gathering. She enjoys dancing, good times, and making friends. The future looks bright for Eleanor.

THOMPSON, RUTH VIRGINIA
Clerical Course

Ruthie is always ready for a good time, such as spending summers at Long Lake and going out with E. B. She has the necessary smile for everyone and with this asset should make a real success as a secretary. Our best wishes go with her.

Honor Roll II.
Sophomore Social Committee.
Class Day Usher.

TOMAO, ELEANOR L.
Stenographic Course

"El," that popular miss known far and wide as "Frankie," is forever battling single handed in defense of "The Voice." She craves hot dogs, onions, and home-made apple pie. She wants to be a writer, get rich in a hurry, and sleep forever after. "El" insists that bookkeeping is the reason she can't stop biting her fingernails.

Class Prophecy.
Junior and Senior Nominating Committee.

TOTORA, ANN MARIE
Clerical Course

Good natured Jinx is the original "Pistol-packin' Mamma." She likes hunting, and would also like to have a good collection of all kinds of guns some day. Jinx is patient, especially when explaining to Miss Mankowich where "those lost slips" are. Our best wishes are with her in her profession of career girl.

TOWNSEND, A. VICTORIA
Business Machines Course

Vicky's many likes denote her as a girl of a pleasing personality. She can always be seen with Adele, with whom she hopes to join the WAVES, a desire of so many of her feminine classmates. If she does, her desire to visit China will probably be fulfilled.

Football Usher.
Graduation Usher.

TUMMINELLI, ROSE LOUISE
College Preparatory Course

Rose likes good music (not jazz), sports, and most of all that boy in the Navy. Her ambition is to be successful in whatever she undertakes, and whether it is nursing or something else, her sincerity and sympathetic feeling toward others is certain to make her realize this ambition.

Honor Roll II, III, IV.
Basketball II.
Hockey II.
Archery II.
Bowling III, IV.

TURNER, HAROLD RALPH
Accounting Course

Blushing when a certain girl's name is mentioned is Harold's weakness. His ambition is to be credit manager at Potter Press, possibly because his credit is so good with all his friends.

TWOMEY, GEORGE JOSEPH
Business Accounting Course

"Take it away, I'll buy War Bonds" says Big George whose ambition is to become the mayor of Waverly. He's always on time when Bob Hope or the 920 Club is on the air and he likes to have the last word when arguing with Richard Wanburg. Inquisitive people and homework do not agree with George, but strawberry sodas hit the spot.

VELLANTE, DELIA C.
Stenographic Course

This petite bundle of dynamite, otherwise known as "Minnie Pearl," dislikes anyone who doesn't like "Frankie. Her favorite expression is "'Really," ("veddy" English, you know!), and her ambition is to be a private secretary to a rich man. She's "mad" about coffee milk shakes, and, because of her delightful sense of humor, gets along well with everyone.

Dramatic Club.
D. U. Club.
Usher at Graduation '44.
Red Cross Representative.
Honor Roll I.

VILES, BETTY
College Preparatory Course

Betty's ambition is to live according to Untermeyer's "Prayer" and Kipling's "If." Exams in 308 are definitely disliked by her, but she likes Mr. Hodge, and his apples, and Manomet, and she admires Mr. Ward. Loads of luck to you, Betty, your friendliness and cheerfulness is certain to make you successful.

Class Historian.
Secretary-Treasurer of Senior Class.
Assistant Editor of "Mirror" II, III.
Bowling IV.
Dramatic Club.

VINCELLO, VIRGINIA B.
College Preparatory Course

"Ginny" likes interesting people and mail, but definitely dislikes anyone who thinks she is too small to do anything. She hopes, after college, to become a teacher, and her smile and sunny disposition should make her a very charming one.

Junior Nominating Committee.
Senior Nominating Committee.
Dramatic Club.
Bowling IV.

WAGNER, JOSEPH
Clerical Course
Joe is one of the boys of 112. He can always be found at the football games cheering on the boys with plenty of confetti. Joe and Don were quite the pair until Don left in February, but since then Joe has awaited his call to service. Best of luck to a good-natured civilian.

WALDMAN, ADELE
Business Machines Course
To join the WAVES is Adele's ambition. With her bright smile, we know she will make as many friends outside of school as she has here. Good luck in the WAVES, Adele.
Honor Roll 1943.
Secretary of Advertising Staff of "Mirror."

WALDRON, CATHERINE MARIE
Practical Arts Course
Kay and Peggy plan to merge talents and open up their own tea room. This adventure should work out marvelously, for Kay has the winning personality, a requisite for success. Kay also plans to join the WAVES and see the world, and also to be nearer that certain boy in the Navy.

WALSH, FLORENCE T.
Business Machines Course
Florence's good sense of humor will be an important asset in helping her to make a success in the WAVES. After getting out, Florence hopes to become a roller-skating champion, and her friends know she has the ability. Loads of luck to her.

WANBERG, RICHARD EDWARD
Accounting Course
"Richy" has his hands full trying to get Pete to hurry up. "Richy," however, gets his vitality by taking things easily in 311. He is in a fix; his desire is to be anything but an accountant.

WASHBURN, JEAN
Stenographic Course
There's nothing pretentious about this pert senior, who is one of those girls who does every little job and says nothing, but who is of the type that everyone likes. She is sure to make her mark in the world.
Archery.
Honor Roll II, III, IV.
Bowling.

WEAGLE, RUTH E.
Stenographic Course
Ruthie's greatest pleasure is writing to G. G. (could it be love?) She enjoys swimming, dancing, driving, and lemon cokes. Some day she wants to live in California, but until then she hopes to be a successful secretary.
Advertising Staff of Mirror.
Cafeteria Worker.

WEATHERBEE, PAUL LAWRENCE
Accounting Course
Paul, also known as "Heron," whose ambition is to become an automobile salesman, just can't stand girls with no self-control and uncooperative women. He never stands women up nor leaves them alone. He enjoys listening to Bing Crosby and cowboy music. After the war Paul and Bob are going to make a cross-country trip and return married.

WEBSTER, DOROTHY ANN
Stenographic Course
If you see a certain blonde, who is five feet two, stumble upstairs or down, you'll know it's "Dot." She loves spaghetti and mocha frappes. Her worst fault is borrowing money, but what's a nickel among friends? When, after a heated discussion, you hear, "Well, all right," ring in your ear, she's probably angry. If Harry James and his orchestra are playing "I Dream of You," and the Navy is close at hand, Dot is happy.
Honor Roll II.

WELLCOME, H. BARDEN
Special Course
To be a success in something, preferably ranching, is the ambition "Tex" hopes to fullfill in life. He enjoys horses, fancy leather work (which anyone can easily see by those fancy cowboy boots he wears) shooting, and hockey; but cares little for people who show off and teachers who show too much authority.
IV.
"Mirror" Art Department Editor

WELLINGTON, DAVID
WORCESTER
Technical Course.
When you hear that expression, "Got a library slip?" then you know it's that ambitious lad, who is noted for his gentlemanly conduct and honesty, "Dave," known as "Wilbur" to his IV B friends. He likes study-periods and vacations, and intends to go to M. I. T. When this college has David, it will surely have an honor student.
Honor Roll II, III, IV.
Vice-President of IV B Club.

WELLINGTON, EDITH ESTELLE
Accounting Course
Edie is another girl who is always on time. Her reserved character and friendly ways have won her many admirers. Her ambition is a noble one, to succeed in life. Sports are first rate with her, especially archery and bowling.
Archery III.
Bowling.

WENCKUS, ALEXANDER FRANCIS
Stenographic Course
"Wink" is one of the best-liked boys in his class. He enjoys being a gentleman of leisure and dancing with J. G. His ambition is to join the Army Air Corps. With his personality, we know he will make a fine pilot. Keep 'em smiling, "Wink."
Football IV.
Honor Roll II, III.
Sophomore Social Committee.
Senior Dance Committee.
Mirror Staff II, III, IV, (Bus. Mgr.)
Class President IV.

WESSELL, MARJORIE EVELYN
Practical Arts Course
Margie gets along with everyone; that's why she's one of the most popular of the crowd. Roller skating, skiing, and traveling occupy her time. She plans to join the WAVES, and, as everyone knows, she is sure to make a good one.

WHALEN, BERNADETTE RUTH
Stenographic Course
"Bernie is a lover of dancing and swing music. She is one of those woman drivers, and her pet dream is to own a beautiful Buick. A certain Bob occupies most of her time, together with Harry James and Vaughn Munroe. She and L. P. have acquired the title of "the inseparables." Let the world see your flowing hair and sparkling smile, Bernie, and we think you will be a model.
Honor Roll II, III.

WILLS, SUSAN D.
Stenographic Course
Sue's ambition is to become either a stenographer or a model. Dancing, skating, and swimming are tops with her. Her favorite song is "Moonlight Serenade," by Glenn Miller. Her appetite is well known to everyone. But after all, she is five feet, nine and a half inches tall, and needs a lot of nourishment. Don't let it get you down, Sue, when you get that model's position.
Honor Roll I, II.

WILSON, BETTY LOUISE
College Course
"Bet" is the tall senior with the winsome smile and pretty brown hair. To graduate from Boston University is her ambition, and we all wish her success.
Honor Roll II, III.
Dramatic Club.
Bowling IV.

WILSON, FRED STANLEY
Practical Arts Course
Freddy spends all day Sunday in Weston with Betty, and the rest of the time talking about her to his friends. His ambition at the present time is to join the Navy and be stationed aboard aircraft carrier, and after the war to learn a good trade and settle down.
Senior Nominating Committee.
Honor Roll.
Mirror Room Agent.

WOLK, MARILYN
College Course
Everybody in 117 admires Marilyn for her exceptional brains and ability. She is a girl of the reserved type and tackles every obstacle with quiet determination but with exceptional results. A good future seems in store for her.

WOOD, RITA K.
Stenographic Course
Being thoughtful is "Rees's" best virtue. She loathes waiting for people. (What people, though?) "I don't like boys," she often remarks, but who believes that? She wants to sing with a band some day, but she is busy at present deciding between the bluejacket and a former W. H. S. graduate.
Dramatic Club.

WOODBURY, FRANK ALLEN
Clerical Course
Woody likes to attend the physics lectures in Room 312 and also to participate in all types of sports. The United States Army Air Corps will claim him soon, but afterwards he plans to buy a new convertible.

WOODS, BARBARA
Practical Arts Course
"Woodsy" would like to travel around the world with a certain person called E—. Our Army, Bing Crosby, and Kay Kyser are her favorites. Getting up early and Frank Sinatra don't agree with her. All of you that know "Woodsy" will find that she is good-natured and happy-go-lucky.

WOOLNER, BEVERLY M.
Stenographic Course
"Bev" can usually be seen dashing about madly to get "The Column" in. After school she can be found at "Docs", drinking frappes as fast as they are made. Going to "Tote" makes her week complete. Her peak will be reached when she becomes a medical secretary. "Oh, Judge" will tell you she's disatisfied.
Honor Roll II, III, IV.
Co-editor of News-Tribune Column.
Junior Prom Committee.

YAMARTINO, RAYMOND LOUIS
Technical Course
Like the rest of the "Tech Boys" "Yamie" is very ambitious. He hopes to see the world and become a thousandaire. With his scholastic achievements, we know that he's off to a good start. "Are you serious, Jockey?" are words which he often utters, always with a smile.
Honor Roll II, III, IV.
Senior Dance Committee.
Junior Nominating Committee.
Mirror Room Agent.

YAROSSI, PAULINE R.
Stenographic Course
If you hear someone yelling, "Hey, Mary, wait for me," that's Polly. She plans to buy a car and travel all over the United States, including California. Keeping scrapbrooks of sports of all kinds are tops with her. She likes ending a day at the Shore Drug Company and listening to Artie Shaw's "Bill." Polly takes week-end visits to Marlboro (—wonder what the main attraction is?)
Honor Roll I.

ZAMMUTO, JOSEPH JOHN
Practical Arts Course
Joe's only weakness is not being able to converse with the opposite sex, but he makes up for this by being careful and meticulous in everything he does. Joe's destination is the Navy where he plans to spend twenty years and then retire to Alaska on a pension.

EBERHARD, JEAN DOUGLAS
South Junior Alumni.
Technical Course
Jean is one of those girls who doesn't lug home any books and still manages to come out with all A's. She enjoys Mr. Ward's English class, dancing, and receiving letters (especially from the Navy). Her ambition is to graduate from Wheaton College, which she is certain to do with her usual "flying colors."
Honor Roll II, III, IV; Junior Nominating Committee; Advertising staff and alumni editor of "Minor"; Honorary mention in Franklin medal; Dramatic Club; Basketball II, IV; Bowling II.

HART, RICHARD DANIEL
Teachers' College Course
Dick aspires to become as good a teacher as Mr. Hodge, and his friendly personality provides him with a solid foundation. A certain senior girl, however, is taking most of his spare time when he isn't practicing on the piano or indulging in his favorite pastime, eating hot fudge sundaes.
Honor Roll II, IV.
Cheer Leader III, IV.
Mirror Advertising Staff.

COMEAU, NORMA ROSALYN
Practical Arts Course
"Norm' is the little miss who likes nothing better than a thrilling football game and Bing Crosby. If you have any conceit in your make-up, you aren't one of her friends. Her spare moments are spent entertaining at U.S.O. camps. Her peak will be reached when she becomes an air hostess.

McNAMARA, JOHN THOMAS
Stenographic Course
"Red Mac's" immediate ambition is to see the world while wearing Navy blue. Give him a blonde, frappes, and plenty of sleep and everything will be fine. Work, silly girls, and flat tires do little to inspire him while keeping Winky out of trouble and lending money help make him the "fine lad" he is.
Business Staff of Mirror IV.

TROMBLEY, JUNE MARJORIE
Accounting Course
June keeps her promises. "Are you kiddin'?" she says whenever anyone hands her a tomato, one "genus fruitus," which she despises. She likes to spend her time with Bill, but dislikes homework and conceited girls.

McSHANE, BARBARA JEAN
Business Accounting Course
Barb likes listening to the 9:20 Club, Bing Crosby's singing and Lux Radio Theatre, but she dislikes conceited people and getting up in the morning. She plans to become a success in the business world, a sure thing for a girl who is always on time.

Class Prophecy

THE time is 1950 and the place Waltham. It is a beautiful Sunday in June. A large crowd has gathered around the speakers' platform on the Common. The Waltham Senior High School Band, still under the supervision of Mr. Crawford, makes merry with music. It is a gala occasion which brings these people together. I am supposedly one of Waltham's favorite daughters returning home after becoming one of the most famous writers of all time.

ELEANOR TOMAO
Writer of Class Prophecy

I am traveling by Pullman, with Sue Di Lorenzo, my secretary. As the train slows down, I gaze out of the window and am surprised to see banners waving, and a "welcome home" sign stretched across Moody Street. Yes, Waltham is still my favorite place although there are a few noticeable changes.

For one thing, instead of the extremely distinguished mayor of five years ago, I see a very familiar face. It looks like—but I can't be sure—yes, it is—Bob Rier.

Well, the train has come to a standstill, and we get off. As we walk to the platform, my eyes search for more familiar faces. After we are seated, I am presented with a key to the city by Mayor Rier who then goes on to recite the history of Waltham.

Standing in the audience are Dottie Webster with her Paul (and all the little Paul's) and Ruthie Weagle with Gig. It looks as if the whole police force is here, and officers Peter Gonsalves, Joe Wagner, George Gardiner, Paul Gordon, and Russell Annis are probably having a busy time watching that no pockets are picked.

I heave a sigh of relief when the Mayor finally finishes his speech. He gives me a three-day tour of the highlights in Waltham, all expenses paid, and Andry Kokidko as explanatory guide. (Who could ask for anything more!)

Since time marches on and we march with it, the program goes on with a song and dance by Delia Vellante, President of the 15th Chapter, Club Number 72, of the "We'd - Lay - Down - Our - Lives - And - Die - For - Frankie - Sinatra Fan Club." The present enrollment is 547 and many of 45's graduates hold important positions in that association. Adele Waldman, Josephine Ravesi, Sue Niosi, Bea Calusdian, Barbara McShane, Angelina Alesse, and Flo Walsh are but a few. Delia tells me there are as many boys as girls in this club, but for fear of being exposed, they refuse to reveal their names. However, I have it on the best authority that John Elander is the most active member much to the disappointment of Paul Weatherbee, who broods alone in a corner, bites his fingernails, tears his hair, and threatens to go outside and eat worms.

Following Delia's number, short speeches are given by presidents of various organizations including Jean Hodgson, founder of the "School of Mercy"—a haven of rest for all those poor unfortunates constantly hounded and tortured into physical as well as mental wrecks by taking such subjects as algebra, typing, bookkeeping, and the like.

Richard Clark, Editor of The News Tribune, is sitting on the platform observing all and saying nothing, while the copyright girls, Mary Arrigo, Sylvia Griff, Anne Delaney, Barbara Farrell, Marion Cantwell, and Ginny Oliveri take notes.

Bill Schultheis, head of the Shell Oil Company, and his secretary, Pauline Cormier, were among the notables present. Bill comments on the fact that there is an over-abundance of gasoline that people are not buying these days. The Shell has no use for it and can't even give it away since Walter Hawley discovered a new and cheaper form of motor power which anyone can make by combining turnip juice, mashed charcoal, and white of egg.

Next in the line of entertainment is a song and dance by Jeanne Casey, followed by Waltham's own Swooner Crooner, Don Kingsley. We soon realize that night is approaching, so the chairman of the board of entertainers, Russ Kelly, states briefly that the program is over. My secretary and I will spend our first night at the Swank Hotel, overlooking the Charles River.

We start for the hotel in a taxi run by Harold Bowman and Weldon Hitchcock. Two drivers for this taxi are an absolute necessity, because, as Harold steers, Weldon pushes from the rear.

We have to make a forced stop at Frank Woodbury's Gas Station, and there we renew acquaintance with the attendant, Anna May Monks.

In record time we reach the hotel and are met by three people—each claiming ownership of the hotel—Paul Brady, Carl Leaf, and Huntley Tasker. They have been fighting over this place for nearly five years and still haven't reached a decision as to who owns it. Paul hires them and Carl fires them, while Huntley just takes life easily and makes passes at the pretty waitresses and bellhops, Eileen Hatfield, Rita Curtin, Peggy Ahern, Ruth Christiansen, Rose Giardina, Virginia Vincello, and Rita McCann. Carl gives us our room number, and tells us it is the best room in the hotel; but when we see it, we decide it must be the next best.

We fall asleep but are soon awakened by a train racing past and then by the sound of hoofbeats. I run to the window and through the darkness, I make out the figure of Yolanda Dellepigne, riding by on her horse.

In the morning, breakfast is served at 7:30, and cooks, Betty Cronin and Donald Hartnett, produce a delicious meal. All the guests of the hotel are seated at a long table, and I notice Blanche Barbanti,Margie Kerins, Arlene Demaris, Marion Berry, Renee Gould, Theresa Casella, Barbara Griff, Phyllis LeShane (who got up at six to wait for the mailman), and Mary Ridenti. They are all here for the grand opening of the Moody Street Harbor, during which ceremony a new ship, "The Alexander" will be christened. It is named after Alexander Wenckus, Waltham's richest and most prominent citizen.

Later, according to our schedule, we meet "Kokie" and take a sightseeing tour through the high spots. The bus driver is Pat Fitzgerald, who is in a bad mood because little Bud Roberts, son of Jean Dermott Roberts, has pulled down the chintz curtains lining the bus windows. "After all, curtains are hard to iron," says Pat.

The other passengers are Corinne Robertson, Esther Dugas, Evelyn Foote, Millie Hayden, Marion Kezer, Barbara Hapenny and Sy, Anna Sabetti, Rose Cincotta, Catherine Waldron, Barbara Geoffrian, James Feneley, and Margie Jones with Bill.

As we pass Senior High, Kokie points out that Richard Wanberg is the new dietitian in the Cafe, June Kelly has taken over Mr. Mitchell's law classes, and Nancy Newcomb has full charge of the Dramatic Club.

We ride on down Lexington Street and stop at the Police Station. It is going to be rebuilt, and "Honest John" MacNamara is laying the cornerstone. As soon as he does that, he is ushered back into his cell by Special Investigator Eddie Bowler, who then locks the cell and throws the key away.

As we pass City Hall, we see Barbara MacDonald, Virginia Morreale, Arlene MacGuinness, Mary Maffei, and Ruth Thompson, the office girls, cross the street for a drop of tea at Pintabone and Whalen's Coffee Shop.

We ride down Moody Street, stop at the bridge to pay a toll to Donald Potter, the officer in charge, and then continue on our merry way.

We pass Cronin's which now occupies two blocks and is still expanding. Paul Joyce is the head man in charge of all the models. His bevy of beauties consists of Lois Deacon, Jean Langill,

Gloria Monteiro, Sue Wills, Carolyn Noyes, Adele Koundakjian, Betty Wilson, Rose Giminarda, Elaine Ramsdell, June Temple, and Selma Kaufman—now that's "one man's family!"

We pass Eleanor Morreale's Restaurant, where Angie Mobilia is in charge of the waitresses, Barbara MacCarthy, Betty McNeil, Alice Connors, and Margie Wessell.

As we start back, we see Don Clarke's Escort Bureau—ladies, do you need an escort? Do you want a man who is tall, dark, and handsome? You do? Well, who doesn't! Clarke's Escort Bureau is well established though. Just recently, Don escorted "John's Other Wife."

We soon realize we are quite tired so we ride back to our hotel where we have our dinner, and soon fall asleep.

On Tuesday, we attend the christening of the new ship. There is a large crowd there, including many newspaper reporters from the Tribune: namely, Bill Furdon, Barden Wellcome, Allen Hamney, Harold Turner, and Dave Wellington. The photographers, Nick Palumbo and Al Benati, are busy taking snaps of the celebrities present. Barbara French, commercial artist for the paper, is drawing a sketch of the ship before June Geisler, a very dear friend of Mr. Wenckus, breaks the bottle of champagne, christens the ship "The Alexander", and sends it rolling down the runway.

After this affair, there are special busses operating to carry the many people to the Hovey Memorial, where a banquet will be held. George Lupien, Lawrence Foote, Dave Hartman, Edward Gerritson, and Warren Judkins cheerfully make many trips with their busses so that all the people get to the hall.

On arrival, we find the music is playing, people are singing, and, in short, everyone is happy. A brief skit entitled, "Home Sweet Home" or "Cedarwood, We Love You" is enacted by Louise Owen, Arlene Roche, and Joane Rand. When the applause dies down, Neil Nix dances, while in the background the chorus girls, Margaret Chiasson, Carmela Alterisio, Jean Porter, Antoinette Ferrara, Margie Swanberg, and Ann Totora sing a popular tune.

Robert Guba, Ray Morse, and Harvey Ruggles, self-appointed ushers, pass out programs. Ray Yamartino is in charge of soft drinks. His favorite one is a mixture of Seven-Up, Ginger Ale, Sasparilla, Root Beer, and Iced Tea. Who will have to wear an ice bag on his head for the rest of the week?

Before the lights are lowered for a song by Albert Stiefel, Lorraine Cousins, and Betty Beckett, I see seated in a far off corner, Eleanor Thomas, Jean Washburn, Lois Kilpatrick, Pauline Yarossi, Rita Wood, and Agnes LeBlanc, talking with Hollywood's Newest Sensation, Jack Manning—here on a personal appearance tour with his press agent, Mike Chagnon.

Suddenly the spotlight is centered on the entrance, and Howard Bettinson, Master of Ceremonies, announces the arrival of Bev Woolner, editor of a nationally known woman's magazine; Janice Myers, rival editor of another nationally known woman's magazine; Barbara Pearson, one of the most talked of women in America; Isabel Harpootlian, Arline Simmons, and Betty Viles, Einstein's three prodigies; and Jill Palumbo with her secretary, Grace Nethercote. Jill is a famous dress designer. She is wearing her latest creation —an ankle length fuschia skirt, an orange jersey blouse, and striped green elbow gloves, all topped off with a yellow turban and silver slippers. Very stunning, but I must wear my glasses from now on. And now, all of a sudden, I see Vic Townsend, Marilyn Leach, Muriel McCann, Florence Raymond, Ida DellaCamera, Charlene Gesner, and Donald Caswell! They are all walking toward me with wicked gleams in their eyes. What's wrong! What have I done?—but I'll never know because I find myself sitting up in bed, and in the middle of the night too! What a nightmare—but it was fun!

Class History

BETTY VILES
Writer of Class History

RAIN dripped mockingly on the billowy whiteness of Doodle's cloud. Heaven certainly could be depressing at times. She stretched her arched neck, and, leaning downward, tilted her head to the side; her long wavy hair caught among the strings of her harp, but her only thought was to discover who was on duty above her. "Dipsy again! Hm—she seems to be enjoying herself, bursting the rain clouds on her." Again she grumbled. "You'd think they'd go easy on the newcomers; after all, she had only swiped her fifth ride on a helicopter. Why shouldn't she accept rides from strangers when they didn't even know there was a Doodle Simmons in Heaven or stealing rides on merry-go-rounds! Besides, it was fun!"

Doodle heaved a sigh; if only she had waited and been born in 2027 instead of 1927 and could be living on earth rather than in Heaven, in 2045.

Suddenly a heavy thud sent her headlong into her cloud. Two minutes later Doodle's head peeped slowly from the cloudburst. "Mr. Morang, have you no respect for the fairer sex?"

Mr. Morang batted two eyelashes. "I really didn't see you this time, Arlene, as I was testing the amount of hydrogen in the new cloud that I received for good behavior, and I forgot to look where I was going."

Doodle looked at him suspiciously, and batted five eyelashes. "Well, please be kind enough to tow me home then."

Reluctantly Mr. Morang put his test tube behind his right ear and tossed Doodle a rope of protons. Happily the two glided onto the plains of Heaven.

The next morning Doodle rose early and quickly walked to the celestial library. The sun shone brightly, and she was quick to notice a bevy of people gathered about two men. Silently she made her way to an impressive figure on the outskirts of the crowd. He turned suddenly, and, much to her amazement, Doodle found herself in the arms of her former English teacher, George Ward. "Why, Mr. Ward! you haven't changed a bit, have you? Where have you been keeping yourself? Oops! Sorry, that's your line—"

"Let me tell you the great news," retorted Mr. Ward, releasing her from his grasp. "Mr. Lionel M. Mosher is about to return to W. H. S.!" he continued in a vehement tone. "He's forgotten the ending of one of his great novels, and is dropping down in a cloud of invisibility to brouse through his books for the ending in the library of W. H. S. I intended to accompany him on his journey, but as I was sneaking between the layers of Mr. Mosher's cloud, George Washington spied me, and, as a result, I shall have no halo until Mr. Mosher returns."

Doodle chuckled. "Do you suppose we might watch his departure from the Pearly Gates?" she inquired.

At that time Bob Rier soared past with Carolyn Noyes, apparently headed for the Pearly Gates. Mr. Ward and Doodle followed and reached the top of the Gates when St. Peter and Miss Allen arrived for their passes. Doodle presented hers to St. Peter while Mr. Ward fumbled hopefully through his sandals.

"Evidently I've lost it," he remarked in disgust.

"Consequently you remain here until you find it," remarked St. Peter.

Mr. Ward groaned. "Oh, my jangled nerves!" he sputtered.

When at last he had rescued his thumb from the knot in his sandals, he realized that Booth Tarkington was presenting Mr. Mosher with a map, compass, and a list of things to bring back.

Doodle squinted through her telescope to see what was on the list. Mr. Reynold's name was first—the two pictures previously in 04. Miss Darmedy's was next—she wished Mr. Mosher to leave a note for Miss Hart to stop taking those vitamin pills she had devised, and to come up and join her, or else she'd be teaching history rather than German till the end of the world. The list went on: Harold Clark, one broken heart; Margie Jones, megaphone; Dick Clark, the latest Popular Science magazine.

Putting the list in his pocket, Mr. Mosher gingerly stepped on his cloud and waved good-bye. Doodle watched till he was out of sight, and then cheerfully left Mr. Ward and St. Peter and went back to bed.

Twenty-four hours later, Mr. Ward was still perched on the Pearly Gates when Mr. Mosher entered Heaven for a second time. Quickly he told what he had discovered.

Waltham Senior High School, the Second, had been founded on Prospect Hill. Good old W. H. S. was now a symbol of great learning, and contained the literature of all its great authors and the statues of all its great teachers. "An amazing likeness of Mr. Ward holding L'Allegro in one hand and a bag of potato chips in the other is standing at the end of the main corridor," he remarked. "I managed to get most of the material except Miss Hart's, who has released her pills for public use." Looking over what Mr. Mosher had brought back, Dick Clark suddenly burst out with a groan, and held up a memorable copy of the Mirror, marked Class of '45. "Do you call this Popular Science?" he squealed. "That was a mistake," chuckled Mr. Mosher. "What does it say?"

"Let's see," went on Dick; "it starts out with the Mirror staff. Ha! I was Editor. Oh, I remember now; over a hundred years ago, I entered in September, 1941, a mere Freshman. There were only eighty of us: Effie Bohannon was President, Roy Arbuthnot, Vice-President; Betty Viles, Secretary-treasurer; and Marge Jones, Auditor. That May we had our first social, and came out four dollars to the good. As sophomores, the Class of '45 piled into the corridors of W. H. S. with Bob Driscoll, President; Bill Power, Vice-President; June Kelly, Secretary-Treasurer; and Carolyn Noyes, Auditor. Barbara Pearson did a wonderful job of handling the Sophomore Social that year, and a number of the students helped out with entertainment as they had done the previous year. In June Miss Helen Ober retired, but is still remembered by all who were fortunate enough to have her as teacher or friend.

In the fall of 1943 John Furdon was killed in combat while serving God and country in World War II. Since then, forty names have been added to the list of valiant fighting men from Waltham High who have given their lives in the service of their Home Land.

In September, 1943, the doors of W. H. S. again swung open, and the class of '45 began its junior year with increased vigor and spirit. Again Bob Driscoll led his class as President, followed by Barbara Pearson as Vice-President, June Kelly as Secretary-Treasurer, and John Rooney, as Auditor. Everyone was overcome with pride and joy at our victorious football team, through which we won the Eastern State Championship, Class A; and our victorious basketball team, through which we entered the Tech Tournament. On May 25, 1944, our Junior Prom was held. I was chairman of the committee, but nevertheless all went well; the gym was decorated to perfection, and the weather was beautiful. Everyone had a wonderful time, and our first formal was a success in every way.

Practically all worked during the summer of '44. There were many jobs to be filled, and the high-schoolers helped out in stores, farms, and factories.

September 6, 1944, was a notable day in the history of the Class of '45. Each day that followed brought us closer to the end of our school years, then we realized for the first time that we were about to be on our own, soon to be groping blindly through the corridors of experience and self-determination. Many senior boys left for the service during our last year; we were proud of them all and admired their spirit and sacrifice. The officers elected in our senior year were President, Alex. Wenckus; Vice-President, Barbara Pearson; Secretary-Treasurer, Betty Viles; and Auditor, Howard Bettinson.

The Dramatic Club moved onward with Nancy Newcomb as President and Donald Kingsley as "The Voice".

Waltham High started off to a great start in football, defeating Rindge Tech. 13-0. Eddie Bowler, burley center, Bill Furdon, left tackle, Ernie Finan, lanky end, and Nick Palumbo, handsome halfback, carried the Crimson throughout an exciting season of teamwork and muscles. Perhaps the most exciting game was Waltham at Everett with a 12-12 tie. The season was ended with a 13-7 victory over our traditional Thanksgiving Day rival, Brockton, and then W. H. S. dove enthusiastically into hockey and basketball. Not only did our team deserve praise but also our vivacious cheerleaders; Marge Jones, Phil LeShane, Ruth Christiansen, Fay Wenckus, Bill Power, Dick Hart, and Walter Keyes.

The Senior Dance was held on January 19, 1945, and thanks to Russel Kelly, as chairman, and everyone who devoted time and effort, it went over the top in every way. Many of the faculty were present; everyone enjoyed himself.

Bev Woolner and Janice Myers kept everyone posted in "This Week at Waltham High". The Pennant Club made its debut under the able direction of Mr. Mosher and Bob Rier. The Class of '45 found it had completed its task at Waltham High, and each member of it went forth on his own separate way with the motto, Respice Finem, a motto that had carried him and his friends through three years of teamwork.

Doodle sighed, Miss Viets sniffed, and Mr. Mosher coughed. Suddenly a great thunderous voice was heard overhead, "Bravo—I've found my pass", shouted Mr. Ward from his lofty temporary abode. And once again he stole the show.

FAREWELL

It's difficult to say good-bye to someone who has been for many years a pillar of perplexing algebraic formulae, a wizard of the unknown x, an expounder of progressions, involution, homogeneous equations, functions, expansions, central tendencies, and what have you; and at the same time a man of impeccable character and earnest friendliness.

For many years, the pupils of Waltham High have had algebra taught them by Mr. Reynolds, and now after fourteen years of outstanding service, he is leaving the portals of a school which is sorry to see him go. Mr. Reynolds will always be remembered for his excellent teaching, while his long record of outstanding service will be hard to equal.

Class Will

BE it remembered that we, the Class of 1945, being of sound and disposing mind and memory and wishing to direct in what manner our possessions shall be disposed of after our departure, do make and publish this, our last will and testament. After the payment of our just debts, we bequeath and devise as follows:

JANICE G. MYERS
Writer of Class Will

To Mr. Ward, our best friend, and advisor, whose partiality towards Bing Crosby has been causing feuds out in Hollywood, we leave a pair of platformed shoes, so that he may be as great as his many friends, not only in respect and admiration, but also in height.

To Miss Clement, our "petite professeur," who has to bear listening to the slander of her favorite language daily, we leave a revised edition of "La Grammaire," entitled, "Learn French the Easy way with the Pupils of Waltham High," or "Get Hep! Learn English with a French accent."

To Mr. Reynolds, the only teacher in the world who is threatening Bob Hope's career, we bestow a modern joke book, which ought to add to our beloved mathematician's gay ninety repetoire.

To Mr. Jack-of-all-trades Morang, who for hours endeavors to seek the scientific cause of the average pupil's density or strange reactions, we leave the formula, "how to teach chemistry and maintain one's sanity."

To Miss Viets, well-read, well-traveled, and extremely well-liked, whose tireless efforts have been a help in producing our fine yearbook, we leave an Editor-in-Chief who will prove equally as conscientious as Dick Clark.

To Mr. Hodge, who is made to listen to a multitude of personal experiences and affairs daily, and who has the best-fed classes in Waltham High, we leave a soon-to-be-completed volume on World War II.

To the graduating class of "1946," one of the mildest in years, we leave the "Rules of Courtesy to Sophomores," some of which are: The cafeteria is on the fourth floor; Room 307 is on the first floor; always ascend or descend any stairway; and eating in the corridors is permissible.

We hereby nominate Mr. Mosher, Mr. Hood, and Miss Spencer, all of Waltham, County of Middlesex, and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, as co-executors of this, our last will and testament. In testimony whereof we hereunto set our hand in the presence of three witnesses and declare this to be our last will this ——— day of June in the year one thousand, nine hundred and forty-five.

CLASS OF 1945
BY JANICE MYERS

On this second day of June, A. D., 1945, Janice Myers for the Class of 1945 of Waltham, Massachusetts, signed the foregoing instrument in our presence, declaring it to be their last will; and thereafter as witnesses we three at their request, in their presence, and in the presence of each other, hereunto subscribed our names.

DOROTHY MANKOWICH
ARLINE DARMEDY
ESTHER F. MEHRING

CODICIL TO THE LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

Be it remembered that we, the class of 1945, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, and wishing to direct in what manner our estate shall be disposed of after our departure, do make and publish this, the codicil to our last will and testament, hereby ratifying and confirming said will in all respects except as changed by this instrument.

We hereby nominate and appoint Phyllis Le Shane executrix, of this, the codicil to our last will and testament, and we hereby request that she be exempt from furnishing any surety or sureties on her official bond.

To most studious and most likely to succeed Richard Clark, Editor-in-Chief of the "Mirror", and the tech course's contribution to Einstein's protigees, we leave this "Book of Knowledge" so he may educate himself on the more simple things in life.

To Delia Vellante, that human comedy, and one woman riot, who was unanimously chosen class wit, we leave a needle and a spool of thread so that she may always keep her acquaintances in stitches.

To Lois Deacon, so poised, so sweet, and so very attractive, our Hollywood refugee whose ethereal charm has caused many sighs of envy, and many whistles of admiration, we leave a contract with one of the top modeling agencies in the country.

To Gilda Palumbo, our most athletic and best dressed girl, we leave a personal garment which will really keep her ship-shape in the gym or the corridors of Boston University.

To Edward Bowler, our most athletic boy, who has excelled in everything from football to hockey, and who has developed enough muscle to shame Charles Atlas, we leave a "yo-yo", so that he may always keep active and be a good sport.

Barbara Pearson, the only promising successor to Mr. Roosevelt, since she has been vice-president for years, is our most popular girl. Since Barbara is everyone's best friend, and always well-supplied with the latest happenings, we leave her a private telephone so that she may give her family a little peace.

To Paul Joyce, Waltham High's own Adolph Menjou, who has the very latest in men's wearing apparel, and who is really a flashy fellow, we bequeath a box of tacks to keep him as "sharp" as he was during '45.

To Eleanor Tomao, our class prophet, who has personality plus, meaning, "She is our sunshine", and who has more effervescence than a bottle of gingerale, we leave a pair of dark glasses so every one will be protected from those bright, sparkling eyes.

To tall, dark, and glamorous Selma Kaufman, Waltham's "oomph" girl, who has a never ending list of admirers, we leave a sweater so that she may always maintain that charming appeal.

The height of perfection is exampled by Betty Viles, our most-likely-to-succeed Secretary-treasurer and D.A.R. representative. She is "lovely to look at", an unassuming genius, and everyone's darling. To our "Pilgrim", we leave the original ladder of success, knowing that she will reach that top step and be a credit to the class of '45.

"All work and no play" never made June Kelley a dull girl. June's all "A" report card has proven that a little effort brings amazing results. She's our most studious girl, with a magnetic personality that attracts a myriad of friends. We leave June a bottle of shellac so that she'll keep that finished look.

President Alexander Wenckus was chosen our most popular boy for a number of reasons. Mainly, he always has a friendly greeting for everyone; he's a regular fellow; and he is respected for his good judgment by students and faculty. To Alec we leave a best seller entitled, "The Waltham Telephone Directory", which contains the valuable information on how to be popular with the opposite sex.

To Nancy Newcomb, the class Helen Hayes, who has shone in such performances as "A Friend of the Family", and "Elmer and the Love Bug". we leave an Oscar which is only presented to the best actress of the year.

To Jack Manning, our Clark Gable incognito, who donned a soldier's uniform in February and now is more handsome than ever, we leave something to keep him company other than week-ends. Not every soldier owns a beautiful doll.

Carolyn Noyes, the girl with the $1,000,000 secret on how to win a young man's fancy, has been chosen Brightest Socialite. Carol has attended all the dances and games and is known all over the good ship W. H. S. as a girl with loads of spirit, friends, and personality. We leave her a flit gun just in case she ever becomes annoyed with any persistent pests.

The newly elected swooner crooner of the bobby-sox crowd is none other than Don Kingsley. Don, best actor of the class of '45, can really send them with his solid vocal tones. This boy is really hep with the younger set, so we leave him a bottle of vitamins and a pair of shoulder pads so he'll always have more than his Hollywood rival.

The class of 1945 does not endorse, nor is in no way connected with, the manufacturers of the aforementioned products, but any money forthcoming from said manufacturers for free advertising should be sent to Mr. Charles W. Goodrich, who promises to place it in a fund towards the building of a monument for Waltham High's veterans of World War II.

We hereby nominate and appoint Mrs. Devine, Mr. Lees, and Mr. Mitchell as co-executors of this, the codicil to our last will and testament, and we hereby direct said executors to pay all our just debts and costs of administration out of our estate. We hereby request that they be exempt from furnishing any surety or sureties on their bonds.

In testimony whereof we hereunto set our hand and publish and declare this to be the codicil to our last will and testament in the presence of the witnesses named below, this the ———— day of June, A. D., 1945.

By—JANICE MYERS

On this 6th day of June, A. A MESSAGE TO WALTHAM HIGH SCHOOL

Dear Waltham High:
We were immigrants on a new journey,
When first we passed through your doors;
It was hard to adjust ourselves to a life
On bewildering high school shores.

We have broken the clouds of darkness;
We have striven to do what is right;
We have learned what you have taught us
With spirit, with vigor, and might.

We shall always return to see you
Though the years go quickly by;
Whether in happiness or in sadness,
'45 will ever be nigh.

Though this world of ours is troubled,
Though turmoil reigns throughout,
Because of your valued training
We will conquer this era of doubt.

With you as our guiding factor,
With you as our hope supreme,
We shall follow on in the road of success
And fulfill our every dream.

Coach Jack Leary

Silver Anniversary, 1920 - 1945

"Beware, the Ides of March" was an old famous Roman saying, but to Waltham it's a red letter date!

For March 15 is the day Jack Leary came back to Waltham High, his alma mater, to coach baseball and football, the exact date being—March 15, 1920. Yesterday marked the completion of 25 years of coaching for the likeable Jack who is practically "Mr. Waltham" himself in the annals of Crimson football.

Twenty-five years of coaching is a long time in one spot and 25 successful years it has been for Coach Leary who is now believed just about the oldest schoolboy coach (in point of service) in Eastern Massachusetts. Only one who probably can dispute his claim is Lynn Classical's Bill Joyce.

Jack, a star halfback in the years of 1907, 1908, probably didn't realize or dream of the long successful 25 years that he has enjoyed, when he took over the Crimson baseball reins in the spring of 1920.

Down through the years Leary has seen his boys come and go and he is now coaching sons of his former pupils. His athletes have gone far and wide in the athletic world after leaving Waltham and all have been a credit to the Leary coaching.

Despite the success of his many great elevens who face a schedule "a-la-Notre Dame," meeting

Jack, when he was captain of our gridiron team of 1908

Threfall, tackle, Lowery, quarterback; Ward, a back, son of Mr. Ward, now a lieutenant in the Navy; Fallon, a back; Carl Everett and Hanney, both backs; Hogan, end; Bell, center; Hal Levison, guard, and "Punch Howard, guard.

That team compiled a record of eight wins, three losses and no ties, scoring 175 points as against 61.

In football, prior to the '43 eleven, Leary likes to relate the feats of the 1926 eleven which tied Haverhill, 0-0, and later was co-champion with the same school; the 1936 eleven which was co-champion with Malden, and the 1928 and 1929 teams sparked by Pendy.

Leary also adds that all the others were no "slouches" even though some didn't win championships as his boys always gave good accounts of themselves.

In the 25 football teams Leary has coached, (next fall will be his 26th), Waltham has won something like 156 games; tied 29 and lost 62 while amassing a total of 3069 points as against the opposition's 1395.

With this fine record Leary sure deserves a big hand of congratulation on his silver anniversary and let's hope for Waltham's sake, he'll have many, many more fine years of coaching!

the best of them, Jack didn't get an undisputed champion, undefeated and untied until as late as 1943 when his team won 11 straight to cop Eastern Massachusetts honors in Class A.

With so many good things having been said about Jack in these long 25 years, we were pressed as to what to get him to say new. Finally, we did pin him down to name an "all-football team" of his 25 years of coaching, which follows:

Le, Buzz Hogan, (Purdue); t, Irad Hardy, (Harvard); lt, Joe Zeno, (Holy Cross); c Dudley Bell, (Harvard); rg, Ernie Schwotzer, (Boston College); rt, Ernie Concannon, (N.Y.U.); re, Binker Smith, (Mass. State); qb, Larry Lowery, (Holy Cross); hb, Bill Pendergast, (Manhattan); hb, Pat Ryan, (N.Y.U.); fb, Johnny Krol, (Dartmouth).

Some five or six of these players are now in the service as are hundreds of Leary's proteges and all are still carrying on in the traditional "Leary-Waltham" spirit.

On his first football team in the fall of 1920, led by George Livermore, were such luminaries as

ERNIE ZENO
Waltham's All-Scholastic fullback, superlative passer, great line plunger, and dependable kicker; the only Crimson player selected on the 1944 Greater Boston All-Stars, which he captained.

Waltham High's football team ended the 1944 season with a record four wins, two losses, and two ties. This so-so record, however, does not show a complete picture of the team's doings.

This year the football team was the twenty-fifth to be under the teaching of our great coach, Jack Leary. With his silver anniversary team, Jack had to start from scratch. Only four veterans remained from the previous years' state champs. However, Jack turned out a team that gave Waltham fans good cause for cheers, and also a team that provided plenty of thrills.

The year's record shows wins over Rindge Tech, Arlington, Lynn English, and Brockton; losses to Malden and Newton; and ties with Everett and Medford. Of these, the two most heartbreaking games were the 13-7 loss to Malden and the miserable 31-7 setback suffered at the hands of our arch-rival, Newton. These two losses were somewhat compensated by a sweet 13-0 defeat of Lynn English at Manning Bowl and an encouraging season's end-triumph over Brockton by a 13-7 score. Two ties, were heavily disappointing, however, for they prevented Waltham from taking second place in the league standings, although in each case our team played well enough to win.

HIGHLIGHTS AND LOWLIGHTS OF 1944

HIGHLIGHTS

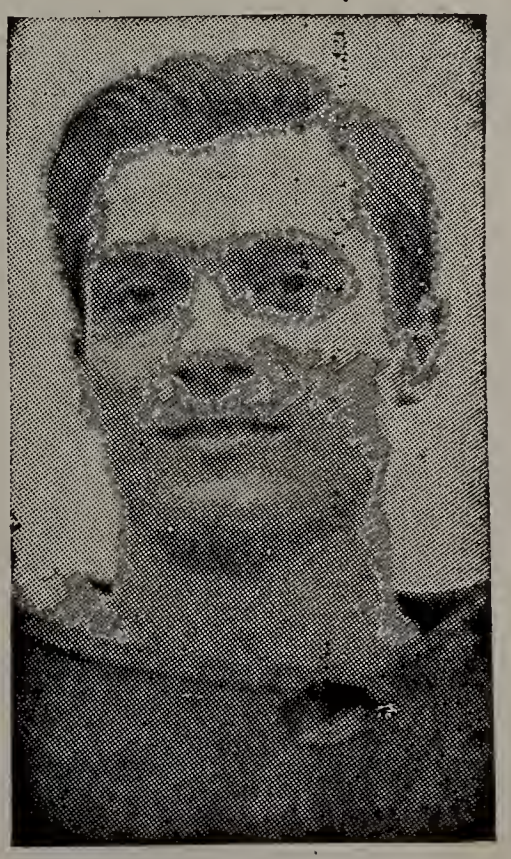
1. Waltham's opening 13-0 victory over Rindge Tech.

2. Dick Stumpf's completion of a Zeno pass in the Rindge Tech game for the season's first score.

3. Bill O'Brien's return of an intercepted pass in the Malden game, from his own 12 to the 49.

4. Bill O'Brien's outstanding playing in the Arlington game. (Remember his touchdown in this one?).

5. Waltham's great showing in the Manning Bowl.



NICK PALUMBO
Senior kicking, running, and pass receiving star in the Crimson's '44 backfield.

WALTHAM HIGH'S VARSITY FOOTBALL TEAM — SEASON OF 1944

6. The terrifically exciting tie with mighty Everett (12-12).

7. Ernie Zeno's gargantram passes in the Everett game.

8. Nick Palumbo's interception of a Medford pass behind his own goal line, to stop a Medford threat.

9. Paul Oulette's touchdown in the Brockton game.

10. Nick Belesis', Conrad Pensavalle's, and Mario Di Marzo's classy playing. Although on the enemy's side, these boys were really outstanding.

11. Ernie Zeno's sterling playing in every game. This all-scholastic nominee certainly proved himself a great ball player.

12. The whole team's grand work in completing a successful season.

Lowlights

1. Malden's victory over Waltham, that stopped our own winning streak, and made possible a new state champion.

2. Ernie Tivan's muff of a pass in the Malden game which certainly would have provided a score if completed.

3. Waltham's inability to convert a "point after" in the Everett game.

4. Waltham's failure to score in the Medford game after fumbling several chances.

5. Waltham's humiliating defeat at the hands of Newton.

BASKETBALL

The basketball season of 1945, although not as successful as the previous season, provided Waltham with causes for elation as the team ended with a 9-7 slate.

With only one varsity "regular" remaining from the Suburban League champions who won twelve straight in 1944, and that "regular" leaving the team at half season, the record compiled by our 1945 basketeers was quite encouraging. Besides having only one regular returning, the Quinnmen lost three very close decisions that could have stood as victories had luck played more on our side.

Bill O'Brien, the only regular that returned to basketball, led the team until his leaving to enter the service at half-year. His loss was a severe blow as his high scoring talent and great play making ability were severely missed as the season rolled on.

However, Wally Crane, a newcomer; Carl Leaf, a rangy center; Roy Arbuthnot, a very valuable floor man; Ducky Keave, high scorer for the team; and substitutes—Scafide, Roy, Furdon, and Keyes—carried on admirably. Ducky Keane proved not a little surprise by leading the team in scoring and swishing baskets at the most opportune time. Wally Crane proved another valuable scorer, being second high on the team. Roy Arbuthnot and Carl Leaf proved steady floor men and accurate shots, while scrappy Scafidi, provided the spark when needed.

ACTION!

Newton edges our courageous team 35-30 as Referee Tony Gentile calls one.

As a whole, the team won nine games while dropping seven, landing in fourth place in the standings, and in the process racking a total of 581 points. The only real blight on the record was two losses to league-champion Newton. Otherwise the Crimson broke at least even with the other teams and won three out of four non-league games, reaching its peak against Trade, when it racked up 89 points. Almost every loss, too, proved a close one, with several that could have gone either way.

The season is behind us; however, let's look again to next year's team!

W. H. S. BASKETBALL JUNIOR VARSITY

Standing: Tom Noonan, Harold Bomengen, John Sweeny, Bob Booth, Harold Bowman, Jack Borger, Al Varney.

Seated: Dick Doucette, Bob McGovern, Angelo Santa Maria, Waldemar Tilley, William Davis, Warren Elliot, Richard Berry.

Bob Booth and Normie Roy,
Two newcomers to our '45 Varsity who helped materially in our three late-season victories.

HOCKEY

First Row: Ouellette, Rier, Anderson, Bowler, Stumpf, Bell.
Second Row: Waterhouse, Hansberry, Dugan, Chiasson, Bartlett, MacArthur, Keith, Smith, Ham, Coville, Haynes, Coach Walter Brinn.

The Waltham High Hockey team did fairly well this year winning five and losing five to end up in third place behind Metropolitan Champs, Walpole, and Brown-trophy winner, Wellesley.

The lack of veteran material at the outset of the season caused doubt in many Waltham circles as to how the team would weather this season's storm. But the Crimson, under the careful care of veteran Coach Walter Brinn, caused many exciting moments with their Bruin-type offense, and their Ranger-type back-checking defense.

SEASON'S RECORD

Waltham —2— Framingham —0—

The Waltham second line, showing all the poise and balance of a well-schooled line, scored both goals in the lid lifter with Framingham. Red Waterhouse and Irving Haynes both registering tallies.

Waltham —1— Norwood —3—

Norwood, showing too much speed and ability, readily outclassed the Brinnmen. Capt. Eddie Mondor paced the victors, while Paul Ouelette scored the lone Waltham goal.

Waltham —2— Watertown —0—

Waltham got back in the win column again by downing Watertown 2 to 0. Ed. Bowler scored both goals, one unassisted.

Waltham —2— Walpole —4—

Potential-Champs Walpole scored two goals in the first few minutes of play, and two in the second period, to bring Waltham its second defeat. Jimmy Bell, and Dick Stumpf played well for the Crimson.

Waltham —5— B. C. H. —0—

With goalie, Francis Anderson registering his third shutout of the year, Waltham played and won its best game to date. Only once did B. C. High threaten, and that with both Ed. Bowler and Bob Rier out, due to penalties.

Waltham —0— Needham —3—

In a game marred by repeated penalties, the Brinn men went down to a 3 to 0 whitewashing by the defending champs, Needham. A total of 15 penalties were assessed on the two teams.

WALTHAM —2— Wellesley —5—

In the roughest game of the year, Wellesley High, breaking a two all-tie in the third period, surged ahead and beat a fighting Waltham six, 5 to 2.

PLAYOFF GAMES

Waltham —6— Watertown —1—

With all three lines scoring, Waltham downed a win-less Watertown aggregation to the tune of 6 to 1. The high spot was a goal by John Hansbury of the third line.

Waltham —3— Framingham —2—

Thanks to Dick Stumpf and Jimmy Bell on the line, and the expert goal tending of Francis Anderson, Waltham eeked out a win over a stuborn Framingham club, 3 to 2.

Waltham —0— B. C. High —5—

The "Eaglets" literally flew all over the ice in downing Waltham in the final playoff game of the Bay State Hockey League season. By losing, Waltham wound up in third place with a total of 10 points.

HOCKEY PROSPECTS

With an almost veteran team returning next year, Waltham should have a banner year in 1946. With only Ed. Bowler and Bob Rier leaving, it leaves three lines, four defensemen, and two goalies intact. It would not be at all surprising to see our locals retain the Bay State Crown lost in 1942.

Let's all keep our fingers crossed and we may have the trophy back in the library where it belongs.

ALL STAR SELECTIONS

Francis Anderson was the only Waltham player to be selected on the first team Bay State All Stars, and he performed well in the net.

Dick Stumpf, Jimmy Bell, and Ed. Bowler were picked on the Bay State seconds. Stumpf and Bell proved the value of their selection by either scoring or assisting on seven of the Bay State's eight goals.

BASEBALL PROSPECTS

The lack of veteran material will undoubtedly cause grave concern in the minds of Waltham fans this year. Members of the squad last year who will be able to play this year are Carl Leaf, Bob Rier, Bob Goudy, Whit Calkins, Malcolm Weatherbee, Huntley Tasker, George Devaux, Bill Furdon, Bily Davis, and Richard Bartlett.

Norman Roy, Diddy Hart, Dick Dugan, Dick Ham, Donald Keith, and Lorne MacArthur should add much strength to the Crimson nine.

FAREWELL

We seniors must now take our leave, but we shall never forget the pleasant days spent in the gym after school for such activities as badminton, basketball, and volley ball; the afternoons in the field playing baseball or trying our luck at achieving Robin Hood's record at archery; the Tuesday afternoons at the City Bowling Alleys where we laughingly made fun of one another, directing people to "follow the blue line," or admired a person with a high score. Yes, we now leave to make room for next year's sophomores, but we take with us pleasant and happy memories of those days.

We admire Miss Sewall for her ability in coaching basketball as well as volley-ball and archery. She has given considerable time and untiring effort. She has shown great patience toward us at all times. She has taught us to be good sports even when things were not the way we wanted them. We appreciate everything she has done for us and will never forget her.

Mrs. Goodwin has been a "pal" in every sense of the word. She also knows what it is to be patient—she went through some trying days when badminton season started and newcomers didn't know the bird from the racket. There were many enjoyable days spent bowling and talking with Mrs. Goodwin while waiting for an alley. Yes, these are all a part of our memory now.

We won't forget Miss Frost and her fine sense of humor. She was always teasing and fun-loving and also possessed that fine virtue previously mentioned—patience. We were very proud of her when she donned the Navy blue and so happy that she consented to go to our Needham basketball game with us, and then was persuaded to attend our Weston game.

Yes, these are only a small part of our memories of Waltham High.

SENIOR vs. JUNIORS

The Senior-Junior Game was no easy victory for the seniors although they led all the way through the game. It was fast, exciting, and enjoyed by members of both teams. Mimi Aliseo was high-scoring senior with 15 points, and Marie Dorval was high-scoring junior with 12 points to her credit. The score was 31-22.

NEEDHAM AT NEEDHAM

The Waltham High six had a very exciting, as well as enjoyable, game at Needham, Thursday, February 1, with an honored guest in the person of Miss Frost, U. S. N., who was home on leave.

The first team played a very fast and close game which was almost always a tie score during the first half. In the last half, however, Waltham spurted ahead with determination, winning the game with a score of 25-18. Captain Nancy Newcomb's guarding ability was outstanding and had more than a little to do with the final score. High scoring forward was Jill Palumbo with 12 points.

The second team played a hard game, and, although they were defeated, they deserve a great deal of praise. Every girl tried her very best so that by the end of the game the margin by which Needham won was slight to what it had been. Captain Elsie Dorval was high scorer with 10 points to her credit. The final score was 21-18 in favor of Needham.

WESTON AT WALTHAM

Waltham's first team was defeated for the first time in three years by the Weston lassies, who won a hard fought game February 6 with a score of 17-15. The cheering section included many prominent members of the hockey squad.

Ruth Christiansen did an excellent job of guarding, which is not unusual. Jill Palumbo certainly did well, and, believe me, she had a problem. Her guard was one whom she tried very hard to evade throughout the game and often succeeded, but just ask Jill about the few times when she didn't quite succeed. Mimi Aliseo was high scorer with 8 points.

The second team made up for the first team's loss by scoring a decisive victory over Weston's second team, with Millie Cardillo as high scorer.

VOLLEY BALL

The annual volley ball game between women teachers and students was held Wednesday, March 14. It was exciting all the time although the students were always ahead. The score was 41-29.

We welcome the newcomers on the Faculty Team and wish to show our appreciation to the team as a whole for their good sportsmanship. While the score may indicate ability, we must bear in mind that the teachers had not practiced for some time.

Participants were:

FACULTY
Miss E. Mehring	A. Cardillo
Miss A. Mehring	A. Koundakjian
Miss Sewell	F. Barrow
Mrs. Goodwin	L. Hawley
Mrs. Minch	V. Oliveri
Miss Tribou	P. Bryson
Miss Hyde	L. Kenneson
Miss Johnson	E. Deveaux
Miss Stewart	J. Horne

JUNIORS vs. SOPHOMORES

The juniors scored a decisive victory over the sophomores in the game played February 15.

Margie Gardner and Marie Dorval seemed to live under the basket, and Phyllis Bryson sent some beautiful long shots into the basket. Lois Coolidge was the outstanding sophomore, who surprised herself with some very unexpected baskets.

The final score was 44-13.

ARMY vs. NAVY

December 7, 1944, the third anniversary of that day we all remember so well, marked a successful close to the fall volley-ball season. On this day two teams were organized by Miss Sewall. Both teams voted unanimously for their temporary titles of "Army" and "Navy" without even considering how appropriately it suited the day. Miss Sewall was our very efficient referee and scorer.

Excellent teamwork and sportsmanship was displayed by both teams. Mary Koutoujian of Navy and Joan Carville of Army seemed to be in competition to see which of the two could sock the ball the harder. They both did a grand job and gave a preview of the 1947 senior volley ball team.

Elsie Dorval and Millie Cardillo did beautifully at front-line playing, and Laura Kenneson's crack serving chalked up quite a few points for Army. Marjie Gardner proved that practice is practice, but a game is a game, but definitely! That girl has talent. Who is the girl that sends the ball sailing smoothly above the rafters only to land out of bounds? No, Elsie, it couldn't be you!

The teams were composed of the following:

ARMY	NAVY
Laura Kenneson	Jean Erwin
Elsie Dorval	Georgette Landry
Isabel Harpootlian	Mary Koutoujian
Marjorie Gardner	Isabelle MacKenzie
Helen Demeo	Marie Dorval
Joan Carville	Sherlie Babb
Audrey Ware	Amelia Cardillo

The final score of the game was 65-27 in favor of Army. After Army played such a good game of football, we couldn't let them down, could we?

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The Mirror wishes to thank all its staff members for their grand coöperation and hard work, which have made possible two outstanding issues this year.

Heartiest thanks go to the Business Staff, upon whose shoulders depends the financial success of the Mirror. The zeal of the staff has helped tremendously to make the magazine the most successful in recent years. A special vote of appreciation goes to Alexander Wenckus for his untiring devotion and his organizing ability which have made the Business Staff such a success.

Harold Whitney, David Law, and Hector MacLean, our class photographers, deserve high praise for their fine work in supplying the Mirror with photographs of our teams in action as well as other important class activities.

The Literary Staff this year has been most coöperative. Gathering material for publication and handling "write-ups" are arduous tasks, but the grand coöperation of the staff eliminated much confusion and lost time.

To the Art Staff, whose work this year ranks with the best, we give a bouquet of thanks. Little do students realize the huge amount of work which this staff does, and how much the popularity of the Mirror depends on this work. Barden Wellcome, Barbara French, James Davini, and the rest of the staff deserve loads of praise.

We duly acknowledge once again the courtesy of the Waltham News Tribune for providing us with football pictures and other essentials so necessary to the photographic success of any good yearbook.

To the Mirror Room Agents we give thanks for their untiring devotion to the sale of the magazine. Because of their splendid efforts, the sale of the Mirror has been a decided success. Here are their names and room numbers:

Finally, we are sincerely grateful to the faculty advisers, Miss Viets, Mr. Hood, Mrs. Devine, and Miss Russo, and to our office staff as well, for their constant aid and advice.

We, the class of 1945, shall be remembered as the last one to have the services of Mr. Ward, our beloved submaster. For forty-one years, Waltham High has had the honor of having Mr. Ward on its staff, and for many years as a class advisor.

Those of us who have had him as a teacher regret the loss that Waltham High must suffer. We know of Mr. Ward's greatness. It is difficult to describe adequately the feeling of respect that he commands in his classroom, or to explain the inspiration he has been to all his students. His pupils have held him in highest esteem, and they will never forget the great work he accomplished for their benefit.

Your leaving, Mr. Ward, is a loss that can never be replaced. English classes will lack those personal "Mr. Ward" touches that have made your classes so outstanding.

INTERESTED IN EMPLOYMENT WITH A FUTURE

If employed at the Telephone Company you'll be helping to win the war, because communications is one of the most essential wartime industries. At the same time you will earn good money under pleasant working conditions.

Here is an opportunity offering you far more than "just a place to work." Girls of the Senior Class should investigate this opportunity. Training courses may be arranged so as not to interfere with studies or graduation. Girls in the Junior Class are welcome to make inquiries looking to employment later on.

Good salary from the time you start training, and prospects for advancement. Whether you stay with us a few years or many, you will find the wholesome, congenial atmosphere of telephone work abundantly worth while.

Your teacher or vocational advisor can tell you more about work in this interesting industry.
